Musics with and after Tonality Paul Fleet, 2021-12-30 This volume is a journey through musics that emerged at the turn of the 20th Century and were neither exclusively tonal nor serial They fall between these labels as they are metatonal being both with and after tonality in their reconstruction of external codes and gestures of Common Practice music in new and idiosyncratic ways The composers and works considered are approached from analytic cultural creative and performance angles by musicologists performers and composers to enable a deeper reading of these musics by scholars and students alike Works include those by Frank Bridge Ferruccio Busoni Mikalojus Konstantinas iurlionis Rebecca Clarke John Foulds Percy Grainger Mary Howe Carl Nielsen Franz Schreker Erwin Schulhoff Cyril Scott and Alexander Scriabin In the process of engaging with this book the reader will find an enrichment to their own understanding of music at the turn of the 20th Century The Oxford Handbook of Music Making and Leisure Roger Mantie,Gareth Dylan Smith,2017 The Oxford

Handbook of Music Making and Leisure presents myriad ways for reconsidering and refocusing attention back on the rich exciting and emotionally charged ways in which people of all ages make time for making music Looking beyond the obvious this handbook asks readers to consider anew What might we see when we think of music making as leisure Meeting the Challenges to Measurement in an Era of Accountability Henry Braun,2016-01-29 Under pressure and support from the federal government states have increasingly turned to indicators based on student test scores to evaluate teachers and schools as well as students themselves The focus thus far has been on test scores in those subject areas where there is a sequence of consecutive tests such as in mathematics or English language arts with a focus on grades 4 8 Teachers in these subject areas however constitute less than thirty percent of the teacher workforce in a district Comparatively little has been written about the measurement of achievement in the other grades and subjects This volume seeks to remedy this imbalance by focusing on the assessment of student achievement in a broad range of grade levels and subject areas with particular attention to their use in the evaluation of teachers and schools in all It addresses traditional end of course tests as well as alternative measures such as portfolios exhibitions and student learning objectives In each case issues related to design and development psychometric considerations and validity challenges are covered from both a generic and a content specific perspective The NCME Applications of Educational Measurement and Assessment series includes edited volumes designed to inform research based applications of educational measurement and assessment Edited by leading experts these books are comprehensive and practical resources on the latest developments in the field The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
