Kohen, Dahlia V. Kohen-Gordon, 2001-01-20 La Concierge is a diary like book of fictionalized life like figures around whom revolve other individuals permanent presences or passersby engaged in their daily trivial or not so trivial activities It somewhat reminds one of books written by the French author Fran oise Sagan who became an instant success with her triad Bonjour Tristesse Un Certain Sourire and Aimez vous Brahms subtle character novels encompassing young girl diaries experiences night scenes of Sorbonne students endless sequences of dance spots and nightclubs until the wee hours love triangles and quadrangles The book is a mini version of Balzac s or Saroyan s Comedie Humaine and Human Comedy It is a sort of candid camera of the heart and modern mores more similar to camcorder images The collection of characters met as they come to pass around the Concierge desk also reminiscent of XVIIIth century s La Bruyere s Caracteres Characters With parading personages from the most attractive and personable to the exquisitely obnoxious the space around the Concierge desk is a living observation laboratory of psychological images and situations In this multiplicity of scenarios somehow similarly to La Bruyere s work the unifying thread is the master idea to expose the ridiculous and the false which in daily activities despite their meaninglessness arouse much passion and controversy They Were Legal: Balzac Y Lopez Diane

In Shapeshifters Aimee Meredith Cox explores how young Black women in a Detroit homeless shelter contest stereotypes critique their status as partial citizens and negotiate poverty racism and gender violence to create and imagine lives for themselves Based on eight years of fieldwork at the Fresh Start shelter Cox shows how the shelter s residents who range in age from fifteen to twenty two employ strategic methods she characterizes as choreography to disrupt the social hierarchies and prescriptive narratives that work to marginalize them Among these are dance and poetry which residents learn in shelter workshops These outlets for performance and self expression Cox shows are key to the residents exercising their agency while their creation of alternative family structures demands a rethinking of notions of care protection and love Cox also uses these young women s experiences to tell larger stories of Detroit s history the Great Migration deindustrialization the politics of respectability and the construction of Black girls and women as social problems With Shapeshifters Cox gives a voice to young Black women who find creative and non normative solutions to the problems that come with being young Black and female in America TV Fiction Classics Magazine Sandy Thomas,1987 Capitalist Humanitarianism Lucia

Hulsether,2023-01-04 The struggle against neoliberal order has gained momentum over the last five decades to the point that economic elites have not only adapted to the Left s critiques but incorporated them for capitalist expansion Venture funds expose their ties to slavery and pledge to invest in racial equity Banks pitch microloans as a path to indigenous self determination Fair trade brands narrate consumption as an act of feminist solidarity with women artisans in the global South In Capitalist Humanitarianism Lucia Hulsether examines these projects and the contexts of their emergence Blending historical and ethnographic styles and traversing intimate and global scales Hulsether tracks how neoliberal self critique creates new institutional hegemonies that in turn reproduce racial and neocolonial dispossession From the archives of Christian fair traders to luxury social entrepreneurship conferences from US finance offices to Guatemalan towns flooded with their loan products from service economy desperation to the internal contradictions of social movements Hulsether argues that capitalist humanitarian projects are fueled as much by a profit motive as by a hope that racial capitalism can redeem the losses that accumulate in its wake Ladies' Home Companion ,1912 Unmasking Masculinity (Routledge Revivals) David Jackson,2015-08-11 In this detailed investigation of masculine gendered identity first published in 1990 David Jackson uses his own personal history to look at the specific ways in which men become masculine In doing so he examines but also offers some positive challenges to the assumed qualities and values of growing up manly Jackson looks closely at the psychological and social forces active in his own development relations with his father violence at school male banter and joking sporting activities boys comics and sexual relations The title is a deliberate blend between life story and critical commentary that makes use of some areas of post structuralist theory to make visible the social and emotional processes that contribute to one man s life history With an innovative theoretical approach this reissue will be of particular value to those interested in the social psychological and cultural forces that have gone into the historical shaping of men and masculinities
