Problematic Communication C David Mortensen,1994-06-20 What makes human communication problematic Why can a face to face encounter be simple automatic and even mindless in one situation and still become complicated difficult and even vexing in the next These are the central questions in this probing analysis of the potential and limits of communication in human relations Working through the seemingly intractable complexities and complications that emerge from such conflicts as multiple viewpoints and divergent vantage points this study advances the prospects of working toward optimum conditions for human interaction The Language of Battered Women Carol L. Winkelmann,2004 This study of battered women living in a shelter offers a rhetorical analysis of survivors personal theologies Author Carol L Winkelmann holds that while it is virtually ignored in the domestic violence literature the Christian heritage of many battered women plays a significant if complicated role in their language thoughts and lives The women s religious faith serves not only to sustain them through periods of profound suffering but also to develop solidarity with other culturally different women in the shelter Designed to assist women to greater independence the shelter actually functions as a culture of surveillance where women turn to one another and to their faith to cope with the trauma of violence To heal the women engage in dialogue that is dense in religious imagery talking about the relationship of God and the church to suffering and evil At the same time these women also acknowledge that organized religion is very much involved in the maintenance of patriarchal marriage and its attendant abuses in their own lives Together battered women are sometimes able to construct creative theological responses to the problem of suffering and evil A mix of religious and secular languages compels them to devise new ways of thinking about their role in family church and society Women in Construction Linda Clarke,2004 The R & B Indies: M to R Bob McGrath,2007
