The Gambia International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2013-05-28 The Gambian economy is still recovering from the severe drought and crop failure Depreciation pressure on the Dalasi has largely been driven by weaknesses in the balance of payments and uncertainty about exchange rate policy Executive Directors have urged the government to curb domestic borrowing and to sustain the fiscal adjustment needed to reduce the high cost and risks of domestic debt They have also commended the progress achieved toward eliminating fiscal dominance and encourage implementing a restrained monetary policy

Analysing the Role of Energy Security in Promoting Third World Development John Alobwede Ngome, Every scholar who reads this book will concur that at the heart of John s analysis is rooted a fundamental question and preoccupation that although Cameroon is naturally endowed with abundant and diverse energy resources the country however remains an energy poor state due to the absence of a durable Energy Security Plan political vision and political will all of which continue to hamper the development of a range of renewables alongside various fossil fuels to improve and guarantee durable Energy Security to catalyze development and reverse the current energy crisis Prof Dr Amelia Hadfield Head of Department of Politics University of Surrey United Kingdom Boston Harbor Massachusetts Deep Draft

Navigation Improvement Project ,2014 Europe's Radical Left Luke March,Daniel Keith,2016-10-20 Although the most pernicious consequences of the crisis have apparently abated the long term political repercussions remain unclear Whereas most attention has focused on the right wing populist parties the rejuvenation of the left is an unwritten story of post crisis politics This volume addresses this story with three principal aims to examine the radical left intellectual response to the crisis i e how actors conceptualise the causes of crisis and its consequences to examine the radical left electoral response to the crisis i e how the crisis has aided or weakened the electoral success of radical left parties and movements to examine organisational responses i e whether the crisis has resulted in new party structures methods of organising and internal party tendencies The result is a comprehensive compendium drawing on cutting edge research from leading European experts to present the first comparative analysis of how the far left of the political spectrum has responded to the crisis It furthers our understanding both of the dynamics of European party systems and the wider consequences of the Great Recession

Guinea International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2013-07-03 This paper discusses Guinea s Second Review Under the Three Year Arrangement under the Extended Credit Facility Requests for Modifications of Performance Criteria and Waiver of Nonobservance of Performance Criterion and Financing Assurances Growth is projected at 4.5 percent for 2013 slightly lower than envisaged because of lower growth in the mining sector The programs inflation target has been revised upward slightly mainly reflecting the higher than programmed outcome at end 2012 together with some modest impact from an agreement on increases in civil service wages Key risks include continued political unrest in the run up to elections which could affect growth investment and reform momentum and a rebound in inflation if the private sector follows the increase in
