Lessons From Ground Zero Media Response To Terror:

Lessons from Ground Zero Ralph Izard, Jay Perkins, 2011-12-31 It ranked among journalism's finest hours That is what was heard in the weeks following September 11 2001 They made mistakes of course but in covering one of the biggest disasters ever to hit the United States journalists used their training their experience their understanding and their sensitivity to provide coverage that helped bring understanding and a sense of calm to the chaos Their performance did not end with reporting the immediate impact of the catastrophe They continued to analyze what happened the impact to property and human lives the impact on government and foreign relations Lessons from Ground Zero examines journalism's efforts to cover a crisis while analyzing journalism itself Many lessons were evident to journalists as they sought to cope with the challenges of covering 9/11 The long term question however is whether the answers they found served as catalysts for better journalism in the future or whether they have been forgotten put into the closet of old memories with no noticeable long term impact This book analyzes journalists' response to 9/11 through scholarly research and interviews with many of the journalists who covered 9/11 Sometimes they do not agree but all are thoughtful and each adds to understanding Public opinion polls show clearly that citizens appreciated and responded to media coverage Given that this occurred in a time frame in which public approval of American journalism had declined it is reasonable to ask what the media did that was different from their normal practices This book provides some of the answers

Smith,2024-05-14 Where was the army Where were the police Where was the state An Israeli mother on the 10 7 attacks America s anti gun lobby wants you to leave guns to the professionals The police and military will protect you they say Really Ask the people of Israel how well that worked out for them On October 7 2023 Hamas terrorists murdered 1 200 Israelis in cold blood Civilians waited in anguish for the army or police to rescue them Why Because the country s restrictive gun laws left most people unarmed The Israeli government made an immediate about face after October 7 They loosened gun laws to allow as many citizens as possible to arm themselves So why are America s anti gun extremists so determined to brush aside the Constitution and force you to turn in your guns The lesson from Israel s experience should be clear If you wait until catastrophe comes it s too late Communication and Terrorism Bradley S. Aha! ,2001 Future Survey ,1988 Social Studies & the Young Learner ,2003 Teaching Tolerance Magazine ,1999 Documentation Abstracts ,2003 No Questions Asked Lisa Finnegan, 2006-11-30 No Questions Asked takes an overarching view of media coverage from the day of the 9 11 attacks through the war in Iraq It also compares and contrasts how the U S media vs international media covered key events during this period Fact based rather than polemical the book explains why journalists responded the way they did during wartime and explores the ramifications for democracy of a weak press The Fourth Estate s most important job is to present unbiased accurate information about events issues and policies to the public Without public scrutiny administrations can become a breeding ground for bad and dangerous ideas In recent years for several reasons including the brilliant psychological manipulation of the nation after the September 11 2001 attacks the American media have allowed administration officials to present information to the public without having to worry much about answering uncomfortable questions or having their policies deconstructed for public consumption Relevant information is buried deep inside newspapers and gaping holes can be found in many stories in short obvious and important questions remain unasked The lack of questions from reporters led to a misunderstanding of the facts by the American public and consequently to their support of policies based on misinformation Polls have revealed that more than half of Americans believe mistruths about the war in Iraq and world terrorism Many including members of the media say the press has failed to do its job Very few news reports filled in the basic blanks the who what where when and whys about U S foreign policy the USA Patriot Act the administration s insistence on the need for secrecy and more power the truth about weapons of mass destruction in Iraq and the necessity of sending our soldiers to topple another country s dictator throwing an already tenuous region into dangerous imbalance Very few reports are filling in those blanks now Crisis Intervention Strategies Richard K.
