Supporting Inclusive Education Jenny Corbett, 2002-11-01 Supporting Inclusive Education is a case study of a London primary school which includes a wide range of learners. It looks at different teaching and learning styles, the effective use of learning support assistants responding to challenging behaviour using specialist strategies, how to research inclusive education and what makes for a connective pedagogy. Teacher to Teacher Mentality Caroline M. Crawford, Sandra L. Hardy, 2017-10-18 This text focuses upon professional discourse that revolves around induction efforts resulting from educators working together to inform one another's practice. Teacher to teacher mentality is the product of purposeful practice as educators serve to inform one another's preparation and development. Further, such mentality transcends boundaries to reach all levels of education and across contexts with cutting-edge research and applications that promote the classroom teacher as associated teacher educator in the process. Therefore, this text is meant as a reflection of the current state of the profession and future research and development prospects pertaining to the concept of classroom teachers as associated teacher educators who through teacher to teacher mentality inform purposeful practice. This text serves also as a tool for promoting professional discourse concerning the classroom teachers as associated teacher educators in this regard. This is such an important discussion to be had and yet only recently has the teacher education profession more fully realized, acknowledged and emphasized the integral impact of teacher to teacher mentality of classroom teachers as associated teacher educators engaged in purposeful practice. Such dynamic interchanges of teacher to teacher mentality extend to teacher candidates, novice classroom teachers and teacher educators.

Inclusive Early Childhood Education Suzanne Winter, 2007 This volume examines how to work with young children who have disabilities within typical preschool and day care settings. Cultural and linguistic diversity is discussed throughout and stories based on real classroom scenarios provide context for each chapter's content. Collaboration is the topic emphasized in this text. The author provides information about how to collaborate and communicate with families and other professionals in early childhood educational settings.
