Not since his Science Good Bad and Bogus has there been such a bountiful offering of the delightful combination of drollery and horse sense that has made Martin Gardner the undisputed dean of the critics of pseudoscience. In The New Age Notes of a Fringe Watcher Gardner confronts new trends in pseudoscience and the paranormal from the much publicized past life exploits of Shirley MacLaine to the latest in perpetual motion machines from prime time preachers to the channeling mania of the past few years. Many of these pieces were published in Gardner's column in the Skeptical Inquirer. Others appeared in the New York Times, the New York Review of Books, Discover magazine and other publications. Gardner has added forewords and or afterwords to most of the chapters to give background to bring recent developments to light or to include responses from his critics. Destined to be a classic of skeptical literature this book will be a welcome treat for Gardner fans and a rewarding adventure for his new readers.
