

LETTER OF INTEREST FOR COACHING POSITION

June 5, 2050
Isabelle Harris
Basketball Coach
Auxilux
Oxnard, CA 93030

Dear Ms. Harris,

I hope this letter finds you well. My name is [Your Name], the head coach at Auxilux. I found your profile during a recent search for potential additions to our coaching staff. I was impressed by your background and feel that you may be an excellent fit for our team.

Auxilux Basketball has a storied history of success, both on and off the court. Your dedication to player development, strategic insight, and passion for the game would perfectly complement our existing strengths.

I want to discuss how your skills and experiences can benefit our program. We are keen on investing in emerging talent and nurturing their development journey. I'd also like to chat about the opportunities and resources available to our coaching staff at Westbrook.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience to realize the potential of this win-win partnership.

Sincerely,

Signature

Sports and the Law Timothy Davis, Alfred D. Mathewson, Kenneth L. Shropshire, 1999 Sports law literature has evolved over the last twenty years as writers have successfully grappled with the myriad of legal and quasi legal issues that arise in the context of sports As a result of their efforts scholars addressing these topics have heightened our understanding of the complex factual legal and social issues that sports matters generate This anthology seeks to continue this development It includes excerpts primarily of law review articles that address the broad dimensions of sports and the law Rather than simply explain the law the excerpts contained in Sports and the Law seek also to examine the multiple variables that have influenced the development of the law of sports. After presenting contrasting views on whether sports law represents a discrete substantive area of law, the anthology explores several sports settings and the application of legal rules to them. These include business and economic e.g. antitrust, taxation, intellectual property and franchise relocation, institutional relationships, formation and governance of sports leagues and student athlete university relationships, labor collective bargaining, constitutional right to participate and drug testing, social and ethical racism, gender equity, agent regulation and ADA and torts, educational and medical malpractice, assumption of risk and workers compensation. This anthology makes accessible articles that enhance the reader's understanding of topics traditionally covered in sports law classes as well as topics that typically escape class coverage.

The Management of Sport Bonnie L. Parkhouse, National Association for Sport and Physical Education, 1996. This text aims to meet the needs of the sport manager and presents information in the speciality areas of experimental learning, organizational theory, group decision making and labour relations. Areas considered include personal ethics, organizational responsibility and professionalization. This edition includes a new chapter on experimental learning which provides information on how internships add to the student's educational experience by providing practical, real world experience for the benefit of the intern, the intern's college or university or the sponsoring organization.

Law and Business of the Sports Industries Robert C. Berry, Glenn M. Wong, 1993-09-30. First issued in 1986, this volume and its companion on professional sports leagues were soon recognized as one of a kind, an ideal source for the sports law practitioner. Now the editors provide a thoroughly revised and updated version. The volume identifies the most significant and current cases in amateur sports and overlap areas in professional sports such as tort liability and criminal law. It provides extensive analysis and interpretation of each case in clear, readable and lively style. While designed as a text in sports law and sports management, the volume also serves as a comprehensive handbook for professionals in law firms, the leagues, associations and among agents.
