, Wattana Chris Herzfeld, 2016-05-02 She likes tea sews draws on papers and is a self taught master of tying and untying knots But she is not a crafty woman of the DIY set she is Wattana an orangutan who lives in the Jardin des Plantes Zoo in Paris And it is in Paris where Chris Herzfeld first encounters and becomes impressed by Wattana and her exceptional abilities with knots In Wattana An Orangutan in Paris Herzfeld tells not only Wattana s fascinating story but also the story of orangutans and other primates including bonobos chimpanzees and gorillas in captivity Offering a uniquely intimate look at the daily lives of captive great apes Herzfeld uses Wattana s life to trace the history of orangutans from their first arrival in Europe in 1776 to the inhabitants of the Zoo of Paris and other zoos today She provides a close look at the habits technical know how and skills of Wattana who remarkably uses strings paper rolls rope and even pieces of wood to make things And she thoughtfully explores how apes individually and often with ingenuity come to terms with and adapt to their captive environments and caretakers Through these stories Wattana sympathetically reveals the extraordinary psychology and distinctive personalities of great apes as well as the interconnections between animal and human lives especially in zoos Scientists predict that orangutans will disappear from the wild by 2030 and captive animals like Wattana may as a result provide our best chance to understand and appreciate their astonishing intelligence and abilities Wattana the accomplished maker of knots is the hero of this poignant book which will enthrall anyone curious about the lives of our primate cousins
