Borders, Bodies and Narratives of Crisis in Europe Thanasis Lagios,Vasia Lekka,Grigoris

Panoutsopoulos,2018-04-25 This book addresses two interrelated discourses of crisis in contemporary Europe the migrant crisis vs the economic crisis The chapters shed light on the thread that links these two issues by first examining immigration and the transformations regarding its control and administration via border technologies as well as on the centrality of the body as a means and carrier of border within contemporary biopolitical societies In a second step the authors proceed to a genealogy of the current discourses regarding the financial and political crisis through a Foucauldian and Lacanian perspective focusing on the co articulation of scientific knowledge and biopolitical power in Western societies Class and

Group Actions in Arbitration Bernard Hanotiau,Eric A. Schwartz,2016-09-23 Several decades ago a typical arbitration would involve one claimant against one respondent Over the years more and more cases involve several claimants against several respondents Today one third of all international ICC arbitrations seem to involve multiparty cases multi contract cases involving multiple contracts multiple parties The evolution has continued and the debate today is whether it would be possible for a class of people in the same situation or a group of citizens having the same interest to start one single arbitration procedure as a group or as a class This publication examines the complex issues involved in class or group arbitration on a comparative law basis Is there a place for such proceedings within the framework of the arbitration process Class action procedures as developed in the United States court system and more recently in Canada are almost nonexistent in Europe The European Commission has advocated collective redress as an important means of access to justice but class actions have found little enthusiasm in the Members States The book highlights the lessons which have been learned from the experience of cases in the US and in Europe What does the future hold for class collective and mass arbitrations Are they a marginal phenomenon or has their potential yet to be realized What are possible solutions to the issues that have been encountered Can we expect to see more of such arbitrations in the future Written by arbitrators academics and practitioners this Dossier will provide the answers to these questions and many more The Wealthy, the Brilliant, the Few Sophie

Spieler,2021-06-09 How does the US make sense of its elite educational system given that it seems to be at odds with core American values such as equality of opportunity or upward mobility Sophie Spieler explores scholarly and journalistic investigations self representational texts and fictional narratives revolving around the Ivy League and its peers in order to understand elite education and its peculiar position in American cultural discourse Among the book s most surprising and groundbreaking insights is the tenacity and adaptability of meritocratic ideology across all three sub discourses despite its fundamental incompatibility with the American educational system US-Chinese Strategic Triangles S. Mahmud

Ali,2017-06-07 This book reveals the nature of Sino US strategic competition by examining the influence exerted by major secondary stakeholders e g Japan Russia India the Koreas and ASEAN on the two powers USA and its rival China who consider each other as a source of greatest challenges to their respective interests By adopting strategic triangles as the analytical framework and assessing triangular relational dynamics such as US China Japan or US China Russia the author illustrates how secondary stakeholders advance their own interests by exploiting their respective linkages to the two rivals thereby shaping Sino US competitive dynamics This work adds a regional and multivariable perspective to the understanding of the Indo Pacific s insecurity challenges
