LES RELIGIONS DES PEUPLES NONCIVILISES ALBERT REVILLE, 1883

Church and Society in Eighteenth-century France: The religion of the people and the politics of religion John McManners, 1998 This second volume begins with a Section on the religion of the people The clergy offered the liturgical services sermons evangelistic missions and the offices sanctifying birth marriage and death distinctions are made between what they intended and how their ministrations were popularly interpreted and incorporated into the social order Statistical soundings concerning the extent of religious practice and the degree of conviction involved are evaluated Further chapters deal with processions pilgrimages and popular practices and superstitions with hermits and confraternities with the impact of reading the Bible and other edifying literature in an age of increasing literacy Finally comes a view of the twilight world of magic and sorcery Throughout this Section the comments of theologians and thinkers of the Enlightenment are recorded whether in coincidence or contradiction The next section deals with the efficacy of the confessional and the role of the casuistry of the Church in attempting to mould sexual mores business practices and in the world of the theatre In the next two Sections the role of religious issues in political affairs is detailed An overview of the Jansenist quarrel and of the activities of the Jesuits brings in the story of the struggle between Crown and Parlement while an extended portrayal of the life of the Protestant and Jewish communities leads to the history of the debate on toleration involving the Gallican Church in political interventions and controversy Throughout the two volumes the rising forces of anticlericalism and the tensions within the ecclesiastical establishment have been recorded and these themes come to their climax in a final section on the role played by churchmen in the coming of the Revolution

Religion Dans L'histoire Michel Despland, Gérard Vallée, Canadian Corporation for Studies in Religion, 1992-03-03 The history of the concept of religion in Western tradition has intrigued scholars for years This important collection of eighteen essays brings further light to the ongoing debate Three of the invited participants W C Smith M Despland and E Feil has each previously written impressive books treating this subject the last two acknowledged the impact and continuing influence of Smith's work The Meaning and End of Religion An introduction and a recapitulation of Smith's contribution as a scholar set the stage for a retrospective look at the published literature Contributors then examine the transformation of words the classical religio to the modern religion particularities of religion in nineteenth century France Troeltsch s concept of religion the study of religion from an Asian point of view and the categorization of World Religions The concluding essays elaborate contemporary anthropological cross disciplinary semiological deconstructive and psychoanalytical methodological approaches to the concept and study of religion Exploring critically different aspects of the concept and study of religion these provocative essays typically reflect the methodological pluralism currently existing in the field of Religious Studies Of interest to scholars and students alike this collection also contains a complete bibliography of W C Smith s publications

Religion, Modernity, Globalisation François Gauthier, 2019-09-30 This book argues that the last four decades have seen profound and important changes in the nature and social location of religion and that those changes are best understood when cast against the associated rise of consumerism and neoliberalism These transformations are often misunderstood and underestimated namely because the study of religion remains dependent on the secularisation paradigm which can no longer provide a sufficiently fruitful framework for analysis The book challenges diagnoses of transience and fragmentation by proposing an alternative narrative and set of concepts for understanding the global religious landscape The present situation is framed as the result of a shift from a National Statist to a Global Market regime of religion Adopting a holistic perspective that breaks with the current specialisation tendencies it charts the emergence of the State and the Market as institutions and ideas related to social order as well as their changing rapports from classical modernity to today Breaking with a tradition of Western centeredness the book offers probing enquiries into Indonesia and a synthesis of global and Western trends This long awaited book offers a bold new vision for the social scientific study of religion and will be of great interest to all scholars of the Sociology and Anthropology of religion as well as Religious Studies in general The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
