Le Horla Et Autres Contes Dangois:

Le Horla Guy de Maupassant, Pierre Cogny, 1984 The Art of Rupture Charles J. Stivale, 1994 Sheds new light on the psychological forces at play in Guy de Maupassant's writing Guy de Maupassant Christopher Lloyd, 2020-03-16 The most celebrated French storyteller of the nineteenth century Guy de Maupassant was a master of the modern short story Offering an intriguing picture of French life his stories derive their enduring appeal from understated artistry extreme craftsmanship and the universality of his characters and their aspirations and misfortunes His career as a professional writer lasted only twelve years before it was brutally cut short by the dreadful consequences of untreatable syphilis chronic sickness a failed suicide attempt insanity paralysis and death after eighteen months confinement in a clinic In this insightful and compelling biography the only one in English currently available Christopher Lloyd situates Maupassant's life and work in the literary and social context of nineteenth century France He skillfully introduces the reader to Maupassant's most famous works such as Boule de suif Bel Ami and Pierre et Jean as well as highlights the important stages and achievements of his life and legacy

the mythological insights achieved in the first part of the book they also suggest the incommensurability of imaginal novelistic life with mythology's age old intuitions about the human condition Myth criticism emerges from this book as an irreplaceable vantage point from which man's lapsarian predicament can be scrutinized synchronically as archaic wisdom contemporary anxiety and post colonial commitment to the building of a new human city

The Feminine as Fantastic in the Conte Fantastique Amy J. Ransom, 1995

The fantastic genre holds a privileged position in literary and feminist studies because of its open exploration of the limits of mimetic creation and its attempts to represent alterity both feminine and supernatural This study traces its development as a product of the dramatically changing cultural context of nineteenth century France Examining post revolutionary concerns about questions of gender and identity this work observes the increasingly disruptive force of the feminine fantastic upon the masculine subject author as symptomatic of a crisis underlying dominant attitudes toward material progress which culminated in the death of the representational in the early twentieth century
