Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals Jennifer L. Shaw, 2017-07-05 The first monograph on a Surrealist cult classic Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals offers a comprehensive account of Cahun's most important published work Aveux non avenus Disavowals 1930 Jennifer L Shaw provides an encompassing interpretation of this groundbreaking work paying careful attention to the complex interrelationship between the photomontages and writings of Aveux non avenus This study argues that the texts and images of Aveux non avenus not only explore Cahun's own subjectivity they formulate a trenchant social and cultural critique Shaw explores how Cahun's work both calls into question the dominant culture of interwar France with its traditional gender roles religious conservatism and pronatalism and takes to task the era's artistic avant garde and in particular its models of desire This volume cuts across the disciplinary boundaries of interwar art studies demonstrating how one artist's personal exploration intervened in wider contemporary debates about the purpose of art the role of women in French culture and the status of homosexuality in the aftermath of World War I Stealing Things Rosemary A. Peters, 2013-08-28 Stealing Things traces the representations of thieves and thievery in nineteenth century French novels Re-reading canonical texts by Balzac the Comtesse de Ségur and Zola through the lens of crime Peters highlights bourgeois anxiety about ownership and objects while considering the impact of literature on popular attitudes about crime and its legislation and punishment A detailed analysis of the role of objects this work chronicles nineteenth century changes in legal attitudes popular mentalities and individual and social identity focusing particularly on the resulting transformations in representations of gender class and criminal subjectivity French Women Writers Eva Martin Sartori, Dorothy Wynne Zimmerman, 1994-01-01 Marie de France Mme De Sévigné and Mme De Lafayette achieved international reputations during periods when women in other European countries were able to write only letters translations religious tracts and miscellaneous fragments There were obstacles but French women writers were more or less sustained and empowered by the French culture Often unconventional in their personal lives and occupied with careers besides writing as educators painters actresses preachers salon hostesses labor organizers these women did not wait for Simone de Beauvoir to tell them to make existential choices and have projects in the world French Women Writers describes the lives and careers of fifty-two literary figures from the twelfth century to the late twentieth All the contributors are recognized authorities Some of their subjects like Colette and George Sand are celebrated and others are just now gaining critical notice From Christine de Pizan and Marguerite de Navarre to Rachilde and Hélène Cixous from Louise Labé to Marguerite Duras these women
