Memoirs of Sherlock Holmes Sir Arthur Conan Doyle,2009-03-14 The Memoirs of Sherlock Holmes is an exciting piece of work by Doyle It is considered one of his masterpieces The memoirs consist of a collection of quests In these adventures the protagonist Holmes serves as a detective who solves the mysteries and problems faced by other people An engrossing narrative that reflects the deceit and conceit of mankind The Memoirs of Sherlock Holmes SIR ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE,Choi Hyun,2016-06-06 The Memoirs of Sherlock Holmes is a collection of Sherlock Holmes stories originally published in 1894 by Arthur Conan Doyle The first London edition of the Memoirs in 1894 did not include The Adventure of the Cardboard Box although all twelve stories had appeared in the Strand Magazine The first U S edition did include the story but it was very quickly replaced with a revised edition that omitted it The reasoning behind the suppression is unclear In Britain the story was apparently removed at Doyle s request as it included adultery and so was unsuitable for younger readers This may have also been the cause for the rapid removal of the story from the U S edition and some sources specify state that the publishers believed the story was too scandalous for the American public As a result this story was not republished in the U S until many years later when it was added to His Last Bow Even today most American editions of the canon include it with His Last Bow while most British editions keep the story in its original place in The Memoirs of Sherlock Holmes Additionally when the story was removed from the Memoirs its opening pages where Holmes emulates Dupin were transferred to the beginning of The Adventure of the Resident Patient In some later U S editions of the Memoirs which still omit The Adventure of the Cardboard Box this transfer still appears reference Wikipedia The Memoirs of Sherlock Holmes along en route for Exeter while Sherlock Holmes with his sharp eager face framed in his ear flapped travelling cap dipped rapidly into the bundle of fresh papers which he had procured at Paddington We had left Reading far behind us before he thrust the last one of them under the seat and offered me his cigar case We are going well said he looking out the window and glancing at his watch Our rate at present is fifty three and a half miles an hour I have not observed the quarter mile posts said I Nor have I But the telegraph posts upon this line are sixty yards apart and the calculation is a simple one I presume that you have looked into this matter of the murder of John Straker and the disappearance of Silver Blaze I have seen what the Telegraph and the Chronicle have to say It is one of those cases where the art of the reasoner should be used rather for the sifting of details than for the acquiring of fresh evidence The tragedy has been so uncommon so complete and of such personal importance to so many people that we are suffering from a plethora of surmise conjecture and hypothesis The difficulty is to detach the framework of fact of absolute undeniable fact from the embellishments of theorists and reporters Then having established ourselves upon this sound basis it is our duty to see what inferences may be drawn and what are the special points upon which the whole mystery turns On Tuesday evening I received telegrams from both Colonel Ross the owner of the horse and from Inspector Gregory who is looking after the case inviting my cooperation Tuesday evening I exclaimed And this is Thursday morning Why didn t you go down yesterday Because I made a blunder my dear Watson which is I am afraid a more common occurrence than any one would think who only knew me through your memoirs The fact is that I could not believe it possible that the most remarkable horse in England could long remain concealed especially in so sparsely inhabited a place as the north of Dartmoor From hour to hour yesterday I expected to hear that he had been found and that his abductor was the murderer of John Straker
