Le Monde Plausible Espace Lieu Carte:

Le Monde plausible Bertrand Westphal, 2011-10-13 Les cartes donnent souvent l'impression que le monde est saturé et que la surface de notre fragile plan s'est renoncée à la dimension du mystère. Ce sentiment d'accomplissement est trompeur. Il est le propre de la modernité occidentale. Tout au long de son histoire, l'Occident n'a eu cesse d'affronter les espaces ouverts pour les transformer en lieux clos sans que ce verrouillage ait jamais été définitif. Tant mieux car chaque fois qu'il rouvre sur un horizon nouveau, le monde suscite l'éblouissement. Les Argonautes et Ulysse ont connu cette sidération de même que Christophe Colomb sa maîtrise. L'art du lienzo aztèque, les lignes de chant des Aborigènes australiens et la cartographie extrême orientale confirment que l'Occident ne détient pas le monopole de la vision géographique du monde. Et plutôt que de réserver les océans aux seules caravelles de Colomb, on lancera aussi dans l'aventure Abou Bakari II, empereur malinké et Zheng He, amiral chinois. Ces tours et détours traversant espaces et lieux d'hier et d'aujourd'hui postulent l'existence d'un monde plausible qui sonnerait le glas des revendications hégémoniques de l'Occident. Reconfiguring the Postcolonial City, 2024-12-09 Global South cities are magnets of immigration flows. They are vivid crucibles of human diversity, cultural interactions but also of political tensions and social violence. From Kolkata to Bogotá, from Harare to Fort de France, from Bamako to Cape Town, this book offers a unique set of studies on cities where multifarious diaspora flows converge. Building on the concept of the ecotone, i.e. a contact zone between populations of different backgrounds, it elicits a multidisciplinary dialogue between social science and humanities scholars exploring the articulation between the postcolonial and the neoliberal city. Following Ananya Roy's proposition of a worlding the South, Roy 2014, this book contributes to forging a situated world view rooted in the experience and the imaginary of Southern cities. With contributions by Markus Arnold, Nataly Camacho, Mari O. Robin, Cohen Ute, Fendler Justine, Feyereisen, Xavier, Garnier, Marina, Ortrud, Hertrampf, Marianne, Hillion, M. lanie, Joseph, Vilain, Tania, Katzschner, Thomas, Lacroix, Christine, Le Quellec, Cottier, Sonja, Loots, Emmanuel, Mb. gane, Ndour, Ngetcham, Nicole, Ollier, Parwine, Patel, Molly, Slavin. Suburbia Reconsidered, Volume 1 Pavlína Flajšarová, Jiří Flajšar, Florian Freitag, Becky Nicolaidis, Andrew Wiese, 2025-11-20 This 3 volume set examines how suburban spaces shape and reflect human experiences in North America, Europe and Asia, bringing together works by an international group of scholars who explore suburbia through critical analyses of literature, culture, sociology, history, politics and urban planning. The multidisciplinary and international scope of each volume offers readers a wide breadth of perspectives. Suburbia Reconsidered thus contributes significantly to the expanding field of suburban studies by offering novel insights into the representation of suburbs in literature, the cultural significance of suburban environments and the socio-economic challenges confronting suburban communities across the globe. Volume 1 of this 3 volume set examines the depiction of suburban spaces in 20th and 21st century British, American, Canadian and French literature. The contributors present original perspectives on how suburban environments influence human experiences and identities as reflected in literature. Chapters in this section also probe the intersections of gender race and ethnicity within suburban fiction and traverse popular genres from detective novels to memoirs By integrating insights from literature cultural studies sociology history and urban planning Suburbia Reconsidered enhances our understanding of suburban spaces and their potential for positive transformation and encourages scholars to explore new methodologies and perspectives

Spaces of Longing and Belonging, 2019-07-01 Spaces of Longing and Belonging offers the reader theoretical and interpretative studies of spatiality centered on a variety of literary and cultural contexts It brings new and complementary insights to bear on creative uses of spatiality in artistic texts and generally into the field of spatiality as a cultural phenomenon especially although not exclusively in terms of literary space Ranging over questions of aesthetics politics sociohistorical concerns issues of postcoloniality transculturality ecology and features of interpersonal spaces among others the essays provide a considerable collection of innovative pieces of scholarship on important questions relating to literary spatiality generally as well as detailed analyses of particular works and authors The volume includes ground breaking theoretical investigations of crucial dimensions of spatiality in a context of increased global awareness

Early Modern Visions of Space Dorothea Heitsch, Jeremie C. Korta, 2021-12-15 How writers respond to a cosmology in evolution in the sixteenth century and how literature and space implicate each other are the guiding issues of this volume in which sixteen authors explore the topic of space in its multiform incarnations and representations The volume's first section features the early modern exploration and codification of urban and rural spaces as well as maritime and industrial expanses Space and Territory Geographies in Texts thus contributes to a history of spatial consciousness The construction of local national political public and private places is highlighted in Space and Politics Literary Geographies the contributors in this segment show how built forms as architectural or literary constructions and spatial orientation are intertwined Space and Gender Geopoetical Approaches traces the experience of gender as political territorial and communicative exploration the essays in this division deal with social organization and its symbolic analysis resulting in literary texts featuring what could be called psychological production theories The development of ethical approaches adapted to or critical of colonial expansion is analyzed in Space and Ethics Geocritical Ventures here we encounter early modern globalization where locals explorers immigrants adventurers and intellectuals remake themselves in new places engage in or meet with resistance or attempt to rework local sociopolitical systems while reassessing those they are familiar with The Space of the Book the Book as Space Printing Reading Publishing analyzes the tactile object of the book as an arena for commerce politics and authorial experimentation

Literature and Geography Emmanuelle Peraldo, 2016-01-14 In a period marked by the Spatial Turn time is not the main category of analysis any longer Space is It is now considered as a central metaphor and topos in literature and literary criticism has seized space as a new tool Similarly literature turns out to be an ideal field for geography This book examines the cross fertilization of geography and literature as disciplines languages and methodologies In the past two decades several methods of analysis focusing on the relationship and interconnectedness between literature and geography have flourished Literary cartography literary geography and geocriticism Westphal 2007 and Tally 2011 have their specificities but they all agree upon the omnipresence of space place and mapping at the core of analysis Other approaches like ecocriticism Buell 2001 and Garrard 2004 geopoetics White 1994 geography of literature Moretti 2000 studies of the inserted map Ljunberg 2012 and Pristnall and Cooper 2011 and narrative cartography have likewise drawn attention to space Literature and Geography The Writing of Space Throughout History following an international conference in Lyon bringing together literary academics geographers cartographers and architects in order to discuss literature and geography as two practices of space shows that literature along with geography is perfectly valid to account for space Suggestions are offered here from all disciplines on how to take into account representations and discourses since texts including literary ones have become increasingly present in the analysis of geographers

The Planetary Humanism of European Women's Science Fiction Eleanor Drage, 2023-10-13 The Planetary Humanism of European Women's Science Fiction argues that utopian science fiction written by European women has since the seventeenth century played an important role in exploring the racial and gender possibilities of the outer limits of the humanist imagination This book focuses on six works of science fiction from the UK France Spain and Italy Jennifer Marie Brissett's Elysium Nicoletta Vallorani's Sulla Sabbia di Sur and Il Cuore Finto di DR Aliette de Bodard's Xuya Universe series Elia Barcelo's Consecuencias Naturales and Historias del Crazy Bar a collection of stories by Lola Robles and Maria Concepcion Regueiro It sets these in conversation with key gender and critical race scholars Judith Butler Rosi Braidotti Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Paul Gilroy and Jack Halberstam It asserts that a key concern for feminism anti racism and science fiction now is to seek inventive ways of returning to the question of the human in the context of increasing racial and gender divisions Offering unique access to contemporary and historical women writers who have mobilised the utopian imagination to rethink the human this book is of use to those conducting research in Gender Studies Philosophy History and Literature

Sea of Literatures Angela Fabris, Albert Göschl, Steffen Schneider, 2023-12-18 Mediterranean studies flourish in literary and cultural studies but concepts of the Mediterranean and the theories and methods they use are very disparate This is because the Mediterranean is not a simple geographical or historical unity but a multiplicity a network of highly interconnected elements each of which is different and individual Talking about Mediterranean literature raises the question of whether the connectivity of Mediterranean literature can or should be limited in some way by constructing an inside and an outside of the Mediterranean What kind of connectivity and fragmentation do literary texts produce how do they build and interrupt references to the real to fictional forms of representation to history but also to other texts and discourses how do they create and deny communication and how do they engage with and reflect literary and non literary concepts of the Mediterranean These and other questions are considered and discussed in the over twenty contributions gathered in this volume

La rue dans tous ses états Béatrice N'Guessan Larroux, 2018-12-10 On prouve le besoin d'approcher la rue unit apparemment simple dont l'intérêt est sans cesse renouvelé par les sciences humaines. La rue intrigue par cette faculté de se soustraire un sens univoque manifeste par le titre même du colloque non seulement la rue dans tous ses aspects induit l'idée de multiplicité et de diversité mais elle soumet au regard l'expression idiomatique dans tous ses aspects traduisant la quiétude rompue et donc l'effolement, la nervosité, le bouleversement, l'anormalité etc. Versatilité qui fait passer des aspects de dormance ceux d'agitation imputables à l'Histoire et des pratiques sociales situées. Vingt-sept auteurs venus de disciplines diverses s'emploient ici à fendre la rue et en illustrer les usages et les fonctions.

Berry l'Ancien : un engagement pour les modernités congolaises Elisabeth Mudimbe-Boyi, 2022-09-21. Ce volume est centré sur la figure de notre père Bernard Kabese que nous appelons affectueusement et avec respect Berry l'Ancien. Les souvenirs recueillis auprès de sa descendance constituent la base de ce livre. S'y trouvent inscrits les changements intervenus dans la société congolaise à partir de la fin du XIX^e siècle : l'esclavage, la colonisation, la christianisation, l'émergence de nouvelles stratifications sociales, les soubresauts au Congo avant et immédiatement après son indépendance. À travers les témoignages, s'esquisse une représentation des attitudes et des mentalités. Se dessine une biographie de Berry l'Ancien et au-delà une micro-histoire jusqu'ici ignorée qui vient s'inscrire dans l'histoire globale du Congo belge et de la colonisation.

Critique, 2011. Décrire, imaginer, construire l'espace Sylvain Dhennin, Claire Somaglino, 2016. Ce volume rassemble treize contributions relatives à la toponymie de l'Égypte ancienne et moderne. Il constitue la publication des actes de deux colloques tenus à Ifao en 2011 et à l'université de Paris Sorbonne en 2012 dans le cadre du programme de recherche Systèmes Toponymiques de l'Ifao. Ces travaux d'onomastique issus d'une tradition ancienne à Ifao proposent une approche renouvelée de la toponymie pour le territoire égyptien laissant une large place aux problématiques de l'espace et du territoire. Ils portent sur la longue durée de manière à permettre d'aborder les mutations géographiques et les évolutions dans la perception de l'espace.

Fait et fiction Françoise Lavocat, 2016. Les frontières entre fait et fiction réel et imaginaire ont la réputation d'être désormais brouillées. Pourquoi les défondre ? Parce qu'elles sont une nécessité cognitive, conceptuelle et politique parce que leur disparition limite le plaisir de passer d'un monde à l'autre. Françoise Lavocat propose ici de repenser les frontières de la fiction dans la littérature, le cinéma, le théâtre et les jeux vidéo. La première ambition de son livre réside dans le bilan très complet qu'il dresse des controverses anciennes et récentes sur le statut de la fiction dans les domaines de la théorie littéraire, du droit, de la psychanalyse et des sciences cognitives. À la faveur de ces éclairages multiples, l'ouvrage prend notamment en compte le phénomène du storytelling, l'histoire des rapports entre Histoire et poésie, la question du blasphème. Le parti pris de distinction qu'il adopte tout en défendant l'idée d'une hybridité essentielle de la fiction en constitue le second intérêt et la stimulante nouveauté. Les conditions de possibilité d'une culture de la fiction sont interrogées ainsi que ses limites. Le point de vue défendu renouvelle entièrement les termes du débat. L'auteur s'emploie en effet à finir la fiction comme un monde possible possédant son ontologie propre en concentrant l'intérêt sur la relation aux personnages, la question des paradoxes et de la métalepse.
