analyzes in Garcilaso's poetry the uses of Renaissance concepts of mythology poetic style theories of love primitivism and iconological traditions Especially important in these analyses are the poetic practices of Petrarchism as defined by Pietro Bembo and the reaction against them proclaimed by Bernardo Tasso Heiple studies each of the sonnets tracing their roots in the Hispanic cancionero poetry through Petrarchism and Neoplatonism to the specific reactions against the Italian Petrarchan mode ending with the sonnets in imitation of the classical epigram Several longer poems Canci n IV Elegy II and Ode ad florem Gnidi are discussed within the contexts of Renaissance poetic conventions and ideas bringing to the fore Garcilaso's incisive wit By abandoning the traditional search for biographical elements in the love poems Heiple is able to bring new relevant information to the interpretation of well known texts and provide new readings for many of Garcilaso's poems
