Domestic and Regional Environmental Laws and Policies in Africa Jean-Claude N. Ashukem, Semie M.

Sama, 2023-11-10 This book explores African domestic and regional responses and approaches to environmental protection and sustainability. Written by African experts, the collection consists of five parts covering the whole of Africa. It provides broad coverage of specific themes including environmental constitutionalism, climate change, gender and the environment, wildlife trade, environmental justice, and human displacement. The key aims are first to explore theoretical and empirical studies to interrogate and provide clarity on academic discourse on how and whether environmental human rights approaches and policy implications have effectively enhanced environmental protection and sustainability at African domestic levels. Second, to investigate and present innovative solutions on how African domestic legal regimes deal with environmental justice, natural resources governance, refugees, environmental rights, and climate-induced displaced persons. Finally, to propose innovative legal and institutionalised solutions to Africa's ecological realities by determining the legal and regulatory gaps on environmental human rights issues on the continent. The collection will be a valuable resource for researchers, academics, and policymakers in human rights law, environmental law, political science, ecology, and conservation, environmental management, disaster management, and development studies. Legal Practice in Uganda Francis Aloysius Wazarwahi Bwengye, 2002

The Law Times, 1961      Kampala Law Reports, 1998      SIHA Journal: Women in Islam (Issue Four) SIHA

SIHA, 2018-12-29 Women in Islam explores the complexities of gender relations in Muslim communities in the Horn of Africa and beyond, engaging critically with the social, political, and cultural challenges associated with the intersection of Islam and gender. With an eclectic selection of essays, academic papers, opinion pieces, and personal narratives punctuated with poetry and art, the journal seeks to spark creative and forward-looking discussions on how to effectively improve the status of women in Muslim societies. Women in Islam is published annually by SIHA, the Strategic Initiative for Women in the Horn of Africa. The fourth issue of Women in Islam is filled with critical analysis, personal stories, and cultural highlights from the Muslim world. The theme of the dossier is women's sexuality, one of the greatest social taboos. Articles in this section uncover the complex web of obsession and repression that surrounds female sexuality in Muslim cultures. Further articles address social injustice and legal reform around the world, while others highlight inspiring stories, such as a women's cycling club in Sudan and how a young Somali woman followed her dream of becoming a mechanic. With poetry, reviews, and stunning artwork throughout, Women in Islam 4 is essential reading.

Law and Religion Supplement Leslie C. Griffin, 2008-07 This is the 2008 Supplement to accompany Griffin's Law and Religion casebook, which fills the need for an interdisciplinary approach to law and religion, just as other important combination courses have, such as law and economics and law and literature.
