Steven Petrow,2021-06-29 For fans of David Sedaris and Nora Ephron here is a humorous irreverent and poignant look at the gifts stereotypes and inevitable challenges of aging based on the wildly popular New York Times essay from award winning journalist Steven Petrow Soon after his 50th birthday Steven Petrow began assembling a list of things I won t do when I get old mostly a catalog of all the things he thought his then 70 something year old parents were doing wrong That list which included You won t have to shout at me that I m deaf and I won t blame the family dog for my incontinence became the basis of this rousing collection of do s and don ts wills and won ts that is equal parts hilarious honest and practical The fact is we don t want to age the way previous generations did Old people hoard They bore relatives and strangers with tales of their aches and pains They insist on driving long after they ve become a danger to others and themselves They eat dinner at 4pm They swear they don t need a cane or walker and guess what happens next They never ever apologize But there is another way In Stupid Things I Won t Do When I Get Old Petrow candidly addresses the fears frustrations and stereotypes that accompany aging He offers a blueprint for the new old age and an understanding that aging and illness are not the same As he writes I meant the list to serve as a pointed reminder to me to make different choices when I eventually cross the threshold to old Getting older is a privilege This essential guide reveals how to do it with grace wisdom humor and hope And without hoarding
