The Role of Science Popularization in Science, Technology & Innovation Policy

Akram Ghadimi, Hasan Jawaid Khan, 2021-01-06 Popularisation of Science Technology and Innovation STI is a process of communicating and appropriating scientific and technological knowledge among broad sectors of the population. This process however must contribute to an effective integration of a number of historical cultural political social and economic situations and make such knowledge a central component of the culture of social awareness and collective intelligence. The possibilities of gaining access to information are changing our vision while transforming the relationship between human beings and the appropriation and dissemination of knowledge. Today access to STI related knowledge is synonymous with development well being and improving quality of life. In this context S while also making scientific and technological knowledge available to the ordinary citizen. This book includes 14 papers contributed by researchers scientists experts and professionals from 9 different developing countries namely Bhutan Cuba India Iran Mauritius Nigeria Sri Lanka Togo and Zimbabwe. And each paper gives significant insight into various policies and strategies that are being adopted or need to be adopted by the developing countries to ensure effective communication and popularisation of scientific knowledge.
