Arab Dawn Bessma Momani, 2015-11-26 In the West news about the Middle East is dominated by an endless stream of reports and commentary about civil war sectarian violence religious extremism and economic stagnation But do they tell the full story For instance who knew that university enrolment in the war torn Palestinian territories exceeds that of Hong Kong or that more than a third of Lebanese entrepreneurs are women Change is on its way in the Middle East argues Bessma Momani and its cause is demographic Today one in five Arabs is between the ages of fifteen and twenty four Young optimistic and increasingly cosmopolitan their generation will shape the region's future Drawing on interviews surveys and other research conducted with young people in fifteen countries across the Arab world Momani describes the passion for entrepreneurship reform and equality among Arab youth With insightful political analysis based on the latest statistics and first hand accounts Arab Dawn is an invigorating study of the Arab world and the transformative power of youth

Governomics Ian McAuley, Miriam Lyons, 2015-05-01 People have good reason to demand decent public education and a well funded health system to yearn for an economy that doesn't trash the environment or for a smaller gap between rich and poor Almost without exception sound economics is on their side We've grown used to public debates that pit people and the planet against an abstract distorted image of the economy but it doesn't have to be this way Governomics shows that an emaciated state is bad for business and that standing up for government means standing up for a public sector that truly serves the public Everybody knows governments are wasteful incompetent and a drag on the economy But if you're not sure that's true read this book Ross Gittins Sydney Morning Herald and The Age Governomics shows that a market economy can only work when sustained by a strong and active public sector It will inject some much needed economic sanity into conversations on the role of government in Australia John Quiggin Australian Research Council Laureate Fellow University of Queensland

Global Social Policy Kepa Artaraz, Liz Cunningham, Michael Hill, 2016-06-29 Social policy is a subject that helps develop our understanding of the meaning of human wellbeing and of the systems by which wellbeing must be promoted As a discipline social policy has traditionally been blunted by a focus on the nation state however in this age of globalisation the most pressing challenges such as climate change ageing populations and flagging economies serve as proof that even at national level social policy is now more heavily influenced by global factors than ever before In this important and authoritative text Kepa Artaraz and Michael Hill provide a richly detailed contribution to our understanding of the global forces shaping social problems today Part One discusses the different approaches to social policy and explores the process of globalisation looking particularly at its winners and losers and the implications it has for human wellbeing Part Two examines more closely the key actors in global social policy such as the market the state and international organisations and Part Three provides an opportunity to explore some specific key issues of global importance such as employment and migration demographic change and global poverty Adding considerable momentum to the movement away from a reductionist nationally focused study of the discipline Global Social Policy opens up new and stimulating discussions and provides a fresh framework for the study of human well being Using policy examples from areas around the world to provide a truly international scope it is an essential read for students studying at all levels Risk Regulation in the Internal Market Maria Weimer, 2019-03-13 This book offers a topical inquiry into the legal and political limits of EU regulation in the field of risk and new technologies surrounded by techno scientific complexity uncertainty and societal contestation It uses agricultural biotechnology as a paradigmatic example to illustrate the complex intertwinement between environmental public health economic and social concerns in risk regulation Weimer analyses the drawbacks of the EU approach to agricultural biotechnology showing that its reductionism i e the narrow understanding of GMO risks as well as the exclusion of broader societal concerns related to environmental and social sustainability has undermined both the legitimacy and effectiveness of EU regulation in this area Resistance to this approach however has also triggered legal innovations prompting us to re think EU internal market law including the way in which it manages the tensions between unity and diversity and between social and economic concerns This text offers fresh and original insights into how far the EU can go in harmonizing regulatory approaches to risk At the same time it proposes new ways of re thinking EU risk regulation to make it more responsive to different perspectives on risk and technology A unique feature of this book is that it contributes to various strains of scholarship including risk regulation internal market law public administration and studies of governance and regulation as well as connecting these themes to broader debates about the legitimacy of European integration and new ways of differentiated integration As a result it assists in re imagining the EU internal market and its regulation as a site of diversity

The Global Muslim Brotherhood in Britain Damon Perry, 2018-07-17 Since 2011 with the British Government's counter radicalisation strategy Prevent non violent Islamist groups have been considered a security risk for spreading a divisive ideology that can lead to radicalisation and violence More recently the Government has expressed concerns about their impact on social cohesion entryism and women's rights The key protagonists of non violent Islamist extremism allegedly include groups and individuals associated with the Muslim Brotherhood and Jama'at al Islami They have been described as part of the global Muslim Brotherhood but do they constitute a singular phenomenon a social movement This book shows that such groups and individuals do indeed comprise a movement in Britain one dedicated to an Islamic revival It shows how they are networked organisationally bonded through ideological and cultural kinship and united in a conflict of values with the British society and state Using original interviews with prominent revivalist leaders as well as primary sources the book also shows how the movement is not so much Islamist in aspiring for an Islamic state but concerned with institutionalising an Islamic worldview and moral framework throughout society The conflict between the Government and the global Muslim Brotherhood is apparent in a number of different fields including education governance law and counterterrorism But this does not simply concern the direction of Government policy or the control of state institutions It most fundamentally concerns the symbolic authority to legitimise a way of seeing thinking and living By assessing this multifaceted conflict the book presents an exhaustive and up to date analysis of the political and cultural fault lines between Islamic revivalists and the British authorities It will be useful for anyone studying Islam in the West government counter terrorism and counter extremism policy multiculturalism and social cohesion      Turning Promises Into Action ,2018 More than two years into the life of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development this report calls for dramatic advances in statistics financing and policies for gender equality as well as more determined steps towards democratic governance and accountability Based on robust data and expert analysis the report takes stock of where we stand on key aspects of gender equality globally tells us what is needed to monitor progress meaningfully and provides wideranging recommendations for change      Documentation Abstracts ,1977      Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie,1963 An author subject index to selected general interest periodicals of reference value in libraries      Psychology David G. Myers,2007      Problems of Post-communism ,2006      Book Review Index - 2009 Cumulation Dana Ferguson,2009-08 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year
