Hanushek, Stephen J. Machin, Ludger Woessmann, 2016-04-27 The volume of research into the economics of education has grown rapidly in recent years In this comprehensive new Handbook editors Eric Hanushek Stephen Machin and Ludger Woessmann assemble original contributions from leading researchers addressing contemporary advances in the field Each chapter illuminates major methodological and theoretical developments and directs the reader to productive new lines of research As a result these concise overviews of the existing literature offer an essential jumpstart for both students and researchers alike Demonstrates how new methodologies are yielding fresh perspectives in education economics Uses rich data to study issues of high contemporary policy relevance Explores innovations in higher education competition and the uses of technology Handbook of the Economics of International Migration Barry Chiswick, Paul W. Miller, 2014-11-04 The economic literature on international migration interests policymakers as well as academics throughout the social sciences These volumes the first of a new subseries in the Handbooks in Economics describe and analyze scholarship created since the inception of serious attention began in the late 1970s This literature appears in the general economics journals in various field journals in economics especially but not exclusively those covering labor market and human resource issues in interdisciplinary immigration journals and in papers by economists published in journals associated with history sociology political science demography and linguistics among others Covers a range of topics from labor market outcomes and fiscal consequences to the effects of international migration on the level and distribution of income and everything in between Encompasses a wide range of topics related to migration and is multidisciplinary in some aspects which is crucial on the topic of migration Appeals to a large community of scholars interested in this topic and for whom no overviews or summaries exist Religion and Law in Australia Paul Babie, Joshua Neoh, James Krumrey-Quinn, Chong Tsang, 2022-11-20 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this convenient resource provides systematic information on how Australia deals with the role religion plays or can play in society the legal status of religious communities and institutions and the legal interaction among religion culture education and media After a general introduction describing the social and historical background the book goes on to explain the legal framework in which religion is approached Coverage proceeds from the principle of religious freedom through the rights and contractual obligations of religious communities international transnational and regional law effects and the legal parameters affecting the influence of religion in politics and public life Also covered are legal positions on religion in such specific fields as church financing labour and employment and matrimonial and family law A clear and comprehensive overview of relevant legislation and legal doctrine make the book an invaluable reference source and very useful guide Succinct and practical this book will prove to be of great value to practitioners in the myriad instances where a law related religious interest arises in Australia Academics and researchers will appreciate its value as a thorough but concise treatment of the legal aspects of diversity and multiculturalism in which religion plays such an important part Industrial Development in Africa Berhanu

Abegaz,2018-02-21 Industrial Development in Africa critically synthesizes and reframes the debates on African industrial development in a capability opportunity framework It recasts the challenge in a broader comparative context of successive waves of catchup industrialization experiences in the European periphery Latin America and East Asia Berhanu Abegaz explores the case for resource based and factor based industrialization in North Africa and Sub Saharan Africa by drawing on insights from the history of industrialization development economics political economy and institutional economics Unpacking complex and diverse experiences the chapters look at Africa at several levels continent wide sub regions on both sides of the Sahara and present analytical case studies of 12 representative countries Egypt Tunisia Ethiopia Kenya Tanzania Mauritius Zimbabwe South Africa Ghana Nigeria Senegal and Cote d Ivoire Industrial Development in Africa will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students studying African development African economics and late stage industrialization The book will also be of interest to policymakers World Trade Report 2013 World Trade

Organization,2013 The world is changing with extraordinary rapidity driven by many influences including shifts in production and consumption patterns continuing technological innovation new ways of doing business and of course policy The World Trade Report 2013 focuses on how trade is both a cause and an effect of change and looks into the factors shaping the future of world trade One of the most significant drivers of change is technology Not only have revolutions in transport and communications transformed our world but new developments such as 3D printing and the continuing spread of information technology will continue to do so Trade and foreign direct investment together with a greater geographical spread of income growth and opportunity will integrate a growing number of countries into more extensive international exchange Higher incomes and larger populations will put new strains on both renewable and non renewable resources calling for careful resource management Environmental issues will also call for increasing attention Economic and political institutions along with the interplay of cultural customs among countries all help to shape international cooperation including in the trade field The future of trade will also be affected by the extent to which politics and policies successfully address issues of growing social concern such as the availability of jobs and persistent income inequality These and other factors are all examined in the World Trade Report 2013

Shadow Networks Francisco Louçã, Michael Ash, 2018-10-03 The 2007-08 financial crisis surprised many economists and the public But how did the crisis come about why was it so deep and why has the clean up been so slow and painful Many accounts of the crisis focus on renegade activity in marginal financial sectors Shadow Networks challenges this pervading view and sets out to demonstrate that far from a dissident branch the shadow finance that initiated the crisis is tightly networked with and highly profitable for bank based finance The collapse was not an accident but baked into the system of finance from the start Shadow Networks traces the complex web of power that caused crisis and gives vivid descriptions of the actors in the quarter century leading up to 2007 to explain how the now decade long crisis took shape Shadow Networks Financial Disorder and the System that Caused Crisis is a probing examination of the roles of the powerful elite It traces the networks and institutions that support a finance focused market centered model of economy and society from their ascendancy to their surprising resilience in the face of manifest failures

Dynamic Industrial Policy in Africa United Nations. Economic Commission for Africa, 2014 For millions of Africans growth is yet to translate into jobs and better living conditions Africa's largely commodity driven growth has not been matched by the much needed structural change that can lead to economic transformation employment and reduced poverty Market failures necessitate industrial policy interventions Yet in the absence of the right processes and institutions good industrial policies will fail Indeed weak institutions and poor policy design have hindered industrial policy This report gives a framework for getting the policy process right to foster industrialization It uses 11 country case studies to assess the critical ingredients for spurring industrialization innovative institutions effective processes and flexible mechanisms and structural transformation
