Mt Kenya Law Intake 2015:

Kenya's 2013 General Election Njogu, Kimani, Wekesa, Peter Wafula, 2017-08-09 When voters enthusiastically turn up to cast their vote during general elections they expect that their action would meaningfully change their lives But in most of Africa even when elections are held on a regular basis voters are quite often disappointed by the performance of their leaders who use the new positions as an opportunity to loot public resources and consolidate power It is almost as if elections are of minimal value to the populace Notwithstanding this trend when they are free and fair general elections can be transformative They can bring into the political arena men and women of integrity committed to service and accountability Inspired by the determination to have inclusive governance and the advancement of democracy Kenya's 2013 General Election Stakes Practices and Outcomes asks important questions related to political participation coalition building politics of identity the international criminal court electoral systems and institutions and the judiciary The papers are written by mainly Kenyan academics and civil society actors who examine the drivers of the 2013 general elections and the sources of the mandate to lead This book is part of publications by Twaweza Communications on democratic practice and accountable governance in Kenya Lawyers in 21st-Century Societies Richard L Abel, Ole Hammerslev, Hilary Sommerlad, Ulrike

Schultz, 2020-04-02 The world's legal professions have undergone dramatic changes in the 30 years since publication of the landmark three volume Lawyers in Society which launched comparative sociological studies of lawyers This is the first of two volumes in which scholars from a wide range of disciplines countries and cultures document and analyse those changes The present volume presents reports on 46 countries with broad coverage of North America Western Europe Latin America Asia Australia North Africa and the Middle East sub Saharan Africa and former communist countries These national reports address the impact of globalisation and neoliberalism on national legal professions the relationship of lawyers and their professional associations to the state and tensions between state and citizenship changes in lawyer demography rapidly growing numbers and the profession's efforts to retain control the entry of women and obstacles to full gender equality ethnic diversity legal education the proliferation of institutions and pedagogic innovation the regulation of lawyers structures of production especially the growth of large firms and the impact of technology and paraprofessionals the distribution of lawyers across roles and access to justice state funded legal aid and pro bono services The juxtaposition of the reports reveals the dramatic transformations of professional rationales labour markets and working practices and the multiple contingencies of the role of lawyers in societies experiencing increasing juridification within a new geopolitical order

The Colobines Ikki Matsuda, Cyril C. Grueter, Julie A. Teichroeb, 2022-02-24 The Colobines are a group of Afroeurasian monkeys that exhibit extraordinary behavioural and ecological diversity With long tails and diverse colourations they are medium sized primates mostly arboreal that are found in many different habitats from rain forests and mountain forests to mangroves and savannah Over the last two decades our understanding of this group of primates has increased dramatically This volume presents a comprehensive overview of the current research on colobine populations including the range of biological ecological behavioural and societal traits they exhibit It highlights areas where our knowledge is still lacking and outlines the current conservation status of colobine populations exploring the threats to their survival Bringing together international experts this volume will aid future conservation efforts and encourage further empirical studies It will be of interest to researchers and graduate students in primatology biological anthropology and conservation science Additional online resources can be found at www.cambridge.org/colobines

Queer and Trans African Mobilities B Camminga, John Marnell, 2022-06-16 Winner ASR Best Africa Focused

Edited Collection by the African Studies Review Recent years have seen increased scholarly and media interest in the cross border movements of LGBT persons particularly those seeking protection in the Global North While this has helped focus attention on the plight of individuals fleeing homophobic or transphobic persecution it has also reinvigorated racist tropes about the Global South In the case of Africa the expansion of anti LGBT laws and the prevalence of hetero patriarchal discourses are regularly cited as evidence of an inescapable savagery The figure of the LGBT refugee often portrayed as helplessly awaiting rescue reinforces colonial notions about the continent and its peoples Queer and Trans African Mobilities draws on diverse case studies from the length and breadth of Africa offering the first in depth investigation of LGBT migration on and from the continent The collection provides new insights into the drivers and impacts of displacement linked to sexual orientation or gender identity and challenges notions about why LGBT Africans move where they are going and what they experience along the way
