Muk Admissions 201:

Ghana Law Since Independence ,2007 Scholars in the Marketplace. The Dilemmas of Neo-Liberal Reform at Makerere University, 1989-2005 Mahmood Mamdani,2007 Scholars in the Marketplace is a case study of market based reforms at Uganda s Makerere University With the World Bank heralding neoliberal reform at Makerere as the model for the transformation of higher education in Africa it has implications for the whole continent At the global level the Makerere case exemplifies the fate of public universities in a market oriented and capital friendly era The Makerere reform began in the 1990s and was based on the premise that higher education is more of a private than a public good Instead of pitting the public against the private and the state against the market this book shifts the terms of the debate toward a third alternative than explores different relations between the two The book distinguishes between privatisation and commercialisation two processes that drove the Makerere reform It argues that whereas privatisation the entry of privately sponsored students is compatible with a public university where priorities are publicly set commercialisation financial and administrative autonomy for each faculty to design a market responsive curriculum inevitably leads to a market determination of priorities in a public university The book warns against commercialisation of public universities as the subversion of public institutions for private purposes Women's Access to Higher Education in Africa Joy C. Kwesiga,2002 This book addresses the gender divide in access to higher education and the Ugandan situation It examines theories of girls education human capital gender inequality and gender development bringing views from Africa and its institutions to debates often constructed and conducted in the West Whilst commending the work of women s movements and NGO s in furthering the educational cause it criticises fashionable neo liberal economic educational policies which are diverting researchers not institutions thus diminishing local universities and women The volume also presents the results of a survey of female undergraduates at the University of Makerere which give rise to discussions about family societal and institutional influences on women s access to higher education This is a welcome book on women in higher education written by an African female academic insider and popular and outstanding contributor to the progress of women in higher education in East Africa Vocational Education and Training Through Open and Distance Learning Louise Moran,Greville Rumble,2004-08-02 Conventional apprenticeships and older methods of professional training are not providing enough skilled workers governments companies and colleges are now using open and distance learning to fill these gaps Published in association with the Commonwealth of Learning this unique review provides detailed analysis of worldwide experiences of vocational training and distance education It looks at recent policy and practice at different levels from transnational programmes and national policies to institutional and programme models Offering guidance on how distance education and new technologies are being used to support vocational education and training this book will help senior institutional managers and policy makers to understand and appreciate the role distance education can play in increasing skills levels in young people and the existing workforce the challenges in using educational technologies and distance education to deliver vocational education and training how to devise effective policies to meet these challenges Political Penetration and Primordial Attachment at Makerere University Erie Buseere Mugerwa,2002 Slow Poison Mahmood Mamdani,2025-10-14 Idi Amin s crimes on behalf of Black empowerment in Uganda made him a monster in the world s eyes Yet Yoweri Museveni has enjoyed decades of Western support in exchange for adopting neoliberal policies and embracing the war on terror An esteemed Ugandan scholar s firsthand report Slow Poison uncovers revealing ironies of postcolonial history Flagship Universities in Africa Damtew Teferra,2017-06-26 This book advances an in depth comprehensive analysis of flagship universities in Africa the largest most selective and most prestigious universities on the continent The book draws on a range of country specific case studies including Botswana Egypt Ethiopia Ghana Kenya Mauritius Nigeria Senegal Tanzania and Zambia to explore a range of issues associated with flagship universities and their role in higher education in Africa Newly established institutions in new nation states and states emerging from conflict often rely on these flagship universities to train their academics and build their intelligentsia flagship universities are thus capacity builders and trend setters in their respective countries and sub regions This volume brings together a range of scholars to celebrate the impact influence and contributions of African universities not only within Africa but across the globe The book will be of great significance to students and researchers in the field of education particularly those with an interest in sociology and politics of higher education Political Penetration and Primordial Attachment at Makerere University Mugerwa David,2002 Mark Lane Express ,1903 Congressional Record United States.
