Child's Name: Matilda Jones

Age: 2 years

Focus Area: Social

Date of Jot 1: 29/08/2016

Date of Jot 2: 31/08/2016

Date of Jot 3: 02/09/2016

Matilda picks the animals from the basket and lines them up on the table. "1,2,3,4,5,6" Matilda says and she points and counts to them one by one. Julia walks over "Can I play" she asks. "No, I'm doing it" Matilda replies and Julia walks off.

Matilda sits next to Lachlan and takes the lump of play dough in front of her. Lachlan puts the basket of tools next to him. Matilda gets off her seat, walks around Lachlan and picks up a playdough tool to use, sits back down and continues with her playdough.

Sarah, Jenna and Janelle are in care today. Matilda smiles as she sees them walk in with their parents in the morning. Matilda spends the day with all three of her peers, laughing, playing and interacting with them.

Interpretation

It is evident that Matilda enjoys moments of solitude during her play and works well within a team and co-operatively with others with her chosen peers.

It's important that we provide Matilda with experiences such as group games to get her involved and interacting with all peers within the room. This will enable her to demonstrate trust and confidence with all those involved during play.

Saracho,2025-06-20 Research Methods for Studying Young Children is a volume developed to bring together in one source research techniques that researchers can use to collect data in early childhood education A Home from Home? Claudia Soares,2023-01-09 A pioneering study of children s social care in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries A Home From Home presents new information and develops conceptual thinking about the history of children s care by investigating the centrality of key ideas about home family and nurture that shaped welfare provision Departing from narratives of reform and discipline which have dominated scholarship and drawing on material culture and social history approaches as well as the extensive archives of the Waifs and Strays Society Claudia Soares provides a new type of study of social care by offering a bottom up study of children s welfare and studying the significance of specific types of care practices that held particular cultural and ideological meaning At its core the book uses unique first hand accounts individual case records and personal correspondence of children in care in Britain to locate the voices and subjectivities of institutionalised children and their families within the voluntary welfare system between 1870 and 1920 In doing so it uncovers the real lives experiences and attitudes of the children and their families and offers a timely new approach to understanding the history of children s social care Survey ,1918 The Message of the City Patricia E. Palermo,2016-05-27 Dawn Powell was a gifted satirist who moved in the same circles as Dorothy Parker Ernest Hemingway renowned editor Maxwell Perkins and other midcentury New York luminaries Her many novels are typically divided into two groups those dealing with her native Ohio and those set in New York From the moment she left behind her harsh upbringing in Mount Gilead Ohio and arrived in Manhattan in 1918 she dove into city life with an outlander s anthropological zeal reads a recent New Yorker piece about Powell and it is those New York novels that built her reputation for scouring wit and social observation In this critical biography and study of the

New York novels Patricia Palermo reminds us how Powell earned a place in the national literary establishment and East Coast social scene Though Powell s prolific output has been out of print for most of the past few decades a revival is under way the Library of America touting her as a rediscovered American comic genius released her collected novels and in 2015 she was posthumously inducted into the New York State Writer s Hall of Fame Engaging and erudite The Message of the City fills a major gap in in the story of a long overlooked literary great Palermo places Powell in cultural and historical context and drawing on her diaries reveals the real life inspirations for some of her most delicious satire

Instructors Resource Manual Laura E. Berk, 2000-08 Curriculum for the Primary Years Phillip Melvin Wishon, Karen D. Crabtree, Malinda E. Jones, 1998. This book is appropriate for curriculum development courses in both early childhood education and elementary education. Promoting the idea of teachers as reflective practitioners rather than managers of time and activities, this reader friendly book takes an integrated research based approach to the early childhood ages 4-8 curriculum. With its conversational style, the text is immediately engaging as it promotes developmentally appropriate practices that encompass the diverse interests, abilities and backgrounds of all learners. This book captures the spirit and the fundamental practical application of a child sensitive approach to curriculum development, delivery and assessment. Survival Guide for Nursing Students Philip Burnard, Paul Morrison (RMN.), 1993. Being a nursing student can be tough, but this practical book is a lifeline to the business of studying effectively and surviving. It is an accessible companion to be consulted for support whenever it is needed or as a source of instant ideas. Anyone embarking on a diploma or undergraduate course for the first time as a postgraduate or mature student returning to learning will find it an essential guide throughout their studies. The text covers all aspects of study skills from essay writing to finding and storing information systematically or working with computers. It deals sensitively yet pragmatically with the important personal and social aspects of being a student, offering sensible advice and information on a range of issues. In addition, practical matters such as handling your finances and preparing for the job market are covered. This is a book to help students explore, to enhance their confidence and to extract the most from the opportunities of student life. It is packed with helpful hints and information, study skills, e.g. organising yourself, keeping references, project work, lectures, supervision, mentors and life skills, e.g. getting on with people, personal health, men in a woman's world, racism, preparing for professional life. Plus each chapter has clear aims and a summary of key points and checklists for quick reference. BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc.
