- Section B: Nineteenth Century Novel – Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde (30 marks + 4 SPaG marks)

What are the Examiners Looking For?

- Balanced treatment of the passage and the whole text.
- Tight focus on the task.
- Focus on Shakespeare as the writer of the play. - What methods has he used to shape meaning? What has he done deliberately?
- Implicit comments about the characters, events, and ideas.
- Subject terminology.
- Use of textual evidence.
- A formal style.
- Specific contextual comments.
  - Links / differences between Shakespeare's audience and a modern audience.

Planning

What should you do when you see the question?

1. Read the information, skim the extract and then read the question.
2. Underline the key terms in the title. Note next to it what aspects of context of the play are relevant.
3. Jot down in rough what you think is the OVERALL IDEA you want to say about Shakespeare's message – think about this properly.

Using the extract

- Read it and look for any imagery patterns in the play – this will help to understand Shakespeare's message.
- Underline these and make notes on how they support your overall idea – read it properly.

What should you look for?

- Imagery first
- Sentence types (questions / exclamations / interruptions) and speech type – but ONLY IF YOU CAN MAKE A POINT
- Any contrasts between characters
- Similes & Metaphors
- Interesting words with layers of meaning
- Anything interesting about the structure of verse
  - Rhyme? Interruption? Sharing a line? Iambic pentameter?
- Any interesting stage directions

Thinking about the rest of the text

- Two or three references to the rest of the text are ideal.
- Select points carefully; show progression or contrast between the extract and the rest of the text.
- Ideally, select parts of the text where key imagery patterns are used.
- NB: Events immediately before or after the extract are treated as the rest of the text.

Structure of the Response

1. Thought-out, thorough introduction
2. Three main points which use analysis to support your argument
  - a. Context should be included in at least 2 paragraphs
  - b. One could be a counter arguments
3. Conclusion – only if you have enough time

How to begin an introduction:
In William Shakespeare's "Macbeth" (1606) –
Always put inverted commas around the title.
The date goes once at first reference of the play.

Literature Essay For Paper 3 2014:

Sustainability · Strategy · Space - exploring influences on governing for urban sustainability in municipalities

Paul Fenton, 2016-06-21 The pursuit of urban sustainability is considered central to sustainable development and is a key objective of the global Sustainable Development Goals 2015 and the New Urban Agenda 2016 This thesis aims to contribute to debates on urban sustainability by providing insights as to the role of actors participating in processes of governing for urban sustainability with particular focus on the municipal organisation The thesis employs an interdisciplinary approach to illustrate divergent approaches to governing for urban sustainability with reference to empirical studies of strategic planning processes in municipalities in selected North western European countries Sweden Switzerland and The Netherlands These studies address themes including climate change sustainable transport and multi level governance The thesis provides a broad overview of theoretical discussions related to governing strategy and planning the role of actors in governing for urban sustainability and the particular importance of climate change as a challenge for urban sustainability A number of research gaps are identified and addressed in two research questions focusing on the organisation and practice of processes of governing for urban sustainability and the factors influencing actors participating in such processes The thesis responds to these research questions with reference to five appended papers which illustrate different dimensions of governing for urban sustainability The first paper concerns the organisation of processes to develop energy and climate strategies in Swedish municipalities and the second paper highlights the experiences of actors participating in such processes The third paper presents results from a survey illustrating the expectations of stakeholders active in governing transport in the city of Norrköping Sweden In the fourth paper the development and implementation of policies aiming for sustainable transport and urban sustainability in Basel Switzerland are discussed In the final paper cooperation through transnational municipal networks is explored with reference to the World Ports Climate Declaration an initiative of the city of Rotterdam The thesis confirms the presence of five factors capacity mandate resources scope and will that shape the strategy space of actors and play an important role in conditioning the form and content of processes of governing for urban sustainability The thesis suggests that the ways in which a municipal organisation perceive and mobilise the five factors will strongly determine the extent of its sustainability strategy space In sum municipal organisations and other actors participating in processes of governing for urban sustainability need to mobilise the five factors and expand their strategy space in order to achieve vertical and horizontal alignment of strategic objectives and facilitate implementation that delivers transformative change

Essays and Interviews on Contemporary American Poets, Poetry, and Pedagogy Daniel Morris, 2024-09-10 In sixteen chapters devoted to avant garde contemporary American poets including Kenneth Goldsmith Adeena Karasick Tyrone Williams Hannah Weiner and Barrett Watten prolific scholar and Purdue University professor Daniel Morris engages in a form of cultural repurposing by learning twice about how to attend to writers whose aesthetic contributions were not part of his education as a student in Boston and Chicago in the 1980s and 1990s when new formalism and post confessional modes reigned supreme Morris s study demonstrates his interest in moving beyond formalism to offer what Stephen Fredman calls a wider cultural interpretation of literature that emphasizes the new historicist concerns with hybridity ethnicity power relations material culture politics and religion Essays address from multiple perspectives prophetic diasporic ethical the vexing problems and sublime potential of disseminating lyrics the ancient form of transmission and preservation of the singular private human voice across time and space to an individual reader in an environment in which e poetry and digitalized poetics pose a crisis understood as both opportunity and threat to traditional page poetry      Forensic Narratives in Athenian Courts Mike Edwards,Dimos Spatharas,2019-08-01 Forensic Narratives in Athenian Courts breaks new ground by exploring different aspects of forensic storytelling in Athenian legal speeches and the ways in which forensic narratives reflect normative concerns and legal issues The chapters written by distinguished experts in Athenian oratory and society explore the importance of narratives for the arguments of relatively underdiscussed orators such as Isaeus and Apollodorus They employ new methods to investigate issues such as speeches deceptiveness or the appraisals which constitute the emotion scripts that speakers put together This volume not only addresses a gap in the field of Athenian oratory but also encourages comparative approaches to forensic narratives and fiction and fresh investigations of the implications of forensic storytelling for other literary genres Forensic Narratives in Athenian Courts will be an invaluable resource to students and researchers of Athenian oratory and their legal system as well as those working on Greek society and literature more broadly

Open Access in Theory and Practice Stephen Pinfield,Simon Wakeling,David Bawden,Lyn Robinson,2020-07-08 Open Access in Theory and Practice investigates the theory practice relationship in the domain of open access publication and dissemination of research outputs Drawing on detailed analysis of the literature and current practice in OA as well as data collected in detailed interviews with practitioners policymakers and researchers the book discusses what constitutes theory and how the role of theory is perceived by both theorists and practitioners Exploring the ways theory and practice have interacted in the development of OA the authors discuss what this reveals about the nature of the OA phenomenon itself and the theory practice relationship Open Access in Theory and Practice contributes to a better understanding of OA and as such should be of great interest to academics researchers and students working in the fields of information science publishing studies science communication higher education policy business and economics The book also makes an important contribution to the debate of the relationship between theory and practice in information science and more widely across different fields of the social sciences and humanities      Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1913      Producing Children Peter C. Kunze,Victoria Ford Smith,2025-04-15 Producing Children imagines the possibility indeed the inevitability of a creative relation between children as producers and consumers by revising the long established hierarchical relation between adults and children The chapters in this collection reveal that studying child produced culture complicates our received understandings of children s culture as culture by adults for children about children They also underscore children s literature as a cultural phenomenon that moves across and beyond genres forms and media As a whole this collection reveals that attention to child produced culture invites dialogue and collaboration across fields and disciplines invested in the critical understanding of children as embodied beings and childhood as both a stage of development and discursive construct with social political economic and cultural dimensions and influence With the ongoing vibrancy of childhood studies as a multidisciplinary area of inquiry studies of child produced culture provide scholars with an exciting opportunity to complicate enrich and expand theorization of childhood creativity children s culture and even children themselves
