Liverpool and the Unmaking of Britain Sam Wetherell,2025-02-27 Few cities in the world are as famous as Liverpool the home of the modern world s most celebrated rock group and of a legendary football team The city is equally notorious for its poverty its ethnic and racial divides and above all its decline For Liverpool was once a major port growing rich on slavery on trade with the Americas and the British Empire s outposts in Africa and Asia In the 1980s it was described as obsolete Yet the city fights on This is the epic history of Liverpool since the Second World War It is a story of vast docklands shrinking and eventually vanishing when corporations discovered they could shift goods in containers and dispense with human workers of industries like car manufacturing mushrooming and disappearing of huge new suburbs being built and neglected It is a moving and horrifying narrative of casual racism Chinese sailors deported en masse in the aftermath of the war systematic discrimination against the city's Black population and of resistance culminating in the Toxteth riots in 1981 It is the story of a city fighting against a descent into obsolescence Liverpool also becomes a prism through which recent British history is brought into a new focus It is the fascinating history of a single iconic city But it is also a warning of what the future may hold for many more communities

Central-local Government Relations in the 1980s Paul Carmichael,1995 The clash between local government and the central government of Margaret Thatcher provided one of the most dominating sights of the 1980s political scene This book is a major contribution to our understanding of the relations between two of the most controversial city councils Liverpool and Glasgow and central government Through detailed analysis of the way in which these councils managed fiscal stress the book debunks the widely held belief that local government had been neutered by the relentless march of centralisation The book employs ideas from beyond political science such as those of urban sociology and geography with their work on the concepts of community locality and place
