Lake Awoonga Fishing Report:

The Ashgate Research Companion to Anthropology Andrew J. Strathern, 2016-03-03 This companion provides an indispensable overview of contemporary and classical issues in social and cultural anthropology. Although anthropology has expanded greatly over time in terms of the diversity of topics in which its practitioners engage, many of the broad themes and topics at the heart of anthropological thought remain perennially vital, such as understanding order and change, diversity and continuity, and conflict and co-operation in the reproduction of social life. Bringing together leading scholars in the field, the contributors to this volume provide us with thoughtful and fruitful ways of thinking about a number of contemporary and long-standing arenas of work where both established and more recent researchers are engaged. The companion begins by exploring classic topics such as Religion, Rituals, Language, and Culture, Violence, and Gender. This is followed by a focus on current developments within the discipline, including Human Rights, Globalization, and Diasporas, and Cosmopolitanism. It provides an interesting and challenging look at the state of current thinking in anthropology, serving as a rich resource for scholars and students alike.

Knowledge and power in an overheated world Thomas Hylland Eriksen, Elisabeth Schober, 2017-10-29 Suddenly we seem to live in a time dominated by fake news, alternative facts, conspiracy theories, scepticism of scientific research, partial accounts parading as the real truth, which has hitherto been concealed from us. The people revolts against allegedly smug academic elites and distant political elites. A time where YouTube videos claiming research into climate change to be a scam get far more viewers than videos presenting the science of climate change. In this world where the authority of science and empirical methods is being questioned and where even world leaders may brush aside uncomfortable facts as fake news, it is increasingly difficult to know whose knowledge to trust. This insight is the starting point of this collection of articles, which has grown out of a workshop organised by the ERC AdvGr project Overheating: The Three Crises of Globalisation in Oslo in 2015. We are very pleased to be able to offer these texts as a free e-book, not least considering the fact that its subject matter is knowledge. Contributors to the book are Ben Campbell, Elisabeth Schober, Desmond McNeill, Christina Garsten, and Thomas Hylland Eriksen. Art direction and technical expertise by Maria Kartveit. Thomas Hylland Eriksen is Professor of Social Anthropology at the University of Oslo and PI of the ERC AdvGr project Overheating. His most recent books in English are Globalization: The Key Concepts (2nd ed, 2014), Fredrik Barth: An Intellectual Biography (2015), and Overheating: Coming to Terms With Accelerated Change (2016). Elisabeth Schober is an Associate Professor at the Department of Social Anthropology, University of Oslo. As part of the Prof. Thomas Hylland Eriksen's Overheating research project, she has recently undertaken seven months of ethnographic field research in the Philippines and South Korea. Previous research of hers on the US military presence in Seoul, South Korea, forms the premise of her most recent monograph Base Encounters: The US Armed Forces (2016). Pluto.

contradiction ridden and unequal It is the age of the Anthropocene of humanity s indelible mark upon the planet In short it is globalisation but not as we know it This collection explores social identities in today s overheated world seen from an anthropological perspective The focus is on contradictions tensions and paradoxes How can an identity be stable if its border is constantly shifting How can a community survive if it is incorporated into a huge entity How does belonging work in new cities And what can indigenous peoples do to retain a sense of self in a fast moving neoliberal world Ethnographically rich and diverse in its scope Identity Destabilised contains chapters from many parts of the world including the Philippines Israel Australia the Cape Verde Islands and Afghanistan The authors investigate how identity changes in response to contemporary forces from rapid industrialisation the enforced return of migrants and the silencing of indigenous groups to sudden population growth in boomtowns and the touristification of local culture     A Report on the Fishing Survey of Lakes Albert and Kioga, March to July, 1928 Edgar Barton Worthington,1929     Report South Dakota.
