Water Imagery in George Sand's Work Françoise Gillebaert, Madeleine Vala, 2019-01-14 This collection of essays highlights the importance of water imagery in the work of the renowned nineteenth century French female author George Sand. It provides a complex picture of the polyvalent presence of water in Sand's work that encompasses life and death, imagery, ecocriticism, fluid kinship, homosocial ties, and artistic creativity. Drawing on Gaston Bachelard's premise that the substance of water carries deep meaning, the articles in this volume explore the element of water and its symbolism in a selection of George Sand's writings and art work from her most famous novels Indiana, Lia, and Consuelo to her later works, short stories, plays, and autobiographical writing. Divine names provide fundamental keys to gain access to the multiple ways gods were conceived, characterized, and organized. Among the names given to the gods, many of them refer to spaces, cities, landscapes, sanctuaries, houses, cosmic elements. They reflect mental maps which need to be explored in order to gain new knowledge on both the structure of the pantheons and the human agency in the cultic dimension. By considering the intersection between naming and mapping, this book opens up new perspectives on how tradition and innovation, appropriation and creation play a role in the making of polytheistic and monotheistic religions. Far from being confined to sanctuaries, in fact, gods dwell in human environments in multiple ways. They move into imaginary spaces and explore the cosmos. By proposing a new and interdisciplinary angle of approach which involves texts, images, spatial, and archaeological data, this book sheds light on ritual practices and representations of gods in the whole Mediterranean, from Italy to Mesopotamia, from Greece to North Africa and Egypt. Names and spaces enable to better define, differentiate, and connect gods. Southern France from the Loire to the Spanish and Italian Frontiers Including Corsica Carl Baedeker, Karl Baedeker, 1891 The Universal Review Harry Quilter, 1889 Bulletins Et Mémoires de la Société Médicale Des Hôpitaux de Paris, 1878 Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum, 1885
