Life of David W. Patten: The First Apostolic Martyr Lycurgus Arnold Wilson, 2020-09-28 Great men are the Lord s abject lessons to the world They hold out to mankind the measure of truth committed to their generation As example is greater than precept so a life may state a truth more forcibly than words When He answered the question as to the first great commandment the Savior did more than satisfy the idle curiosity of the listening crowd He indicated one of the underlying purposes of this life and stated the principle by which the degree of civilization will be determined Measured by the love he bore his Maker and his fellow men few greater men have ever lived than David Wyman Patten With all the intensity of his nature he served the Lord and with the same undivided purpose he was devoted to the welfare of humanity Having in mind that divine precept Greater love hath no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friend the Prophet Joseph Smith said over the remains of this great Apostle There lies a man who has done just as he said he would he has laid down his life for his friends Of David s early life little is known While he was quite young his parents Benenio Patten and Abigail Cole Patten removed from the State of Vermont where he was born about the year 1800 to the town of Theresa at Indian Elver Falls in the western part of the State of New York Leaving home while yet a boy he made his way to the southeastern part of Michigan and made himself a home in the woods a short distance above the little town of Dundee in Monroe County where he married Miss Phoebe Ann Babcock in 1828 Here too though telling his fellow religionists that there was no true religion on the earth he allied himself with the Methodists Having been from youth of a religious turn of mind he had received a particular manifestation of the Holy Ghost when he was twenty one years of age Being admonished to humble himself before the Lord and repent of his sins he enjoyed for the next three years a close communion with the Lord through visions and dreams of the night In one of these it was made known to him that the Church of Christ would be established in his day and he looked forward to such an event with joyous anticipation When about the age of twenty four years as he tells us in his meager journal he became through the cares of the world neglectful in conduct and remained so to some extent until he was thirty years old when by sincere repentance he again received a testimony that his sins were forgiven Under these conditions and at about this time he saw for the first time a copy of the Book of Mormon but only long enough to read the inspired preface and the testimony of the eleven witnesses From this time he prayed continually for faith and a more perfect knowledge It was while living in anticipation of just such an event therefore that he received in the latter part of May 1832 a letter from his elder brother John Patten of Fairplay Indiana informing him of the restoration of the Gospel The message fairly caused his heart to leap for joy He seemed conscious of the light which was about to burst upon him He knew by intuition that his life s darkness was over and that henceforward he should walk in the light of eternal truth He arose in the meeting that day for it was on a Sunday he received the intelligence and told the assembly that he had at last got word of the Church of Christ
