SADC Gender Protocol 2019 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe, Rama, Kubi, 2019-08-23 Scoring another goal for gender equality the 2019 Southern African Development Community SADC Gender Protocol Barometer breaks with past tradition in focusing solely on Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights Measuring 100 indicators across seven themes the Barometer is the first civil society shadow report on SADC's new SRHR Strategy Score Card ranking countries based on their performance while offering detailed analysis and insights into what is changing and still needs to change The no hold barred Voice and Choice Barometer features the first stand along chapters on Adolescent Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights Safe Abortion and Sexual Diversity It provides the data that underpins 40 national campaigns led the focal networks of the Southern African Gender Protocol Alliance and 174 local campaigns led by the Centres of Excellence for Gender in Local Government A must read for all those committed to Action and Results for Agenda 2030 in the SADC region Curriculum Development and Review for Democratic Citizenship and Human Rights Education Tibbitts, Felisa, Council of Europe, 2016-03-01 Education for democratic citizenship and human rights education are vital for peaceful sustainable and inclusive societies based on respect for the human rights of every person Effective teaching and learning processes require well trained teachers positive learning environments and high quality learning materials This is underpinned by education policy including curriculum development and review which is the main focus of this book The strengthening of education policies in the fields of education for democratic citizenship and human rights lies at the very heart of the efforts of the Council of Europe the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization the Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights of the Organization for Security and Co operation in Europe and the Organization of American States These organisations have jointly produced this publication in order to support states commitment to fostering citizenship and human rights education and improving access to quality education for all Towards a holistic approach to support learners at risk of interrupted development Macalane J. Malindi, Johnnie Hay, Thabo Makhalemele, 2024-02-23 The COVID 19 pandemic and the restrictions that came with it led to unprecedented disruptions in learner development and put them at risk of poor developmental outcomes It is thus important that the extent of the disruption on their development and the support needs of learners be investigated Researching the impact of the disruption should focus on holistic development In this book the authors use multiple research approaches and methods of gathering data in their respective fields to examine the impact of the disruption and determine the support needs of learners Data gathered through the different methods are processed and findings are presented The findings have implications for both practice and future research in the fields of inclusive education learner support educational psychology movement education Life Orientation and curriculum development

Queer Activism in South African Education Dennis A. Francis, 2022-08-19 Offering a vital critical contribution to debates on gender sexuality and schooling in South Africa this book highlights how South African educational practices discourses and structures normalize cisheteronormativity along with how these are resisted within schools and through contemporary forms of activism Not only does it add fresh insights to the existing research literature on gender sexualities and schooling it also underscores the valuable contributions of queer and transgender social movements which have made influential legislative teaching learning and support contributions to education Drawing on ethnographic research with queer and transgender activists teachers school managers parents and school attending youth the book provides everyday real life quotes and observations offering a deeply critical contribution to the debates on gender and sexualities education and activism Using spatial and affect theories it troubles the assumptions that frame this field of research to make a novel contribution to the national and international literature and research The book provides research based insights for thinking about and calls for informed action to challenging cisheteronormativity within and beyond schools

Language, Cognition and Gender Alan Garnham, Jane Oakhill, Lisa von Stockhausen, Sabine Sczesny, 2016-08-08 Gender inequality remains an issue of high relevance and controversy in society Previous research shows that language contributes to gender inequality in various ways Gender related information is transmitted through formal and semantic features of language such as the grammatical category of gender through gender related connotations of role names e.g. manager secretary and through customs of denoting social groups with derogatory vs neutral names Both as a formal system and as a means of communication language passively reflects culture specific social conditions In active use it can also be used to express and potentially perpetuate those conditions The questions addressed in the contributions to this Frontiers Special Topic include how languages shape the cognitive representations of gender how features of languages correspond with gender equality in different societies how language contributes to social behaviour towards the sexes how gender equality can be promoted through strategies for gender fair language use These questions are explored both developmentally across the life span from childhood to old age and in adults The contributions present work conducted across a wide range of languages including some studies that make cross linguistic comparisons Among the contributors are both cognitive and social psychologists and linguists all with an excellent research standing The studies employ a wide range of empirical methods from surveys to electro physiology The papers in the Special Topic present a wide range of complimentary studies which will make a substantial contribution to understanding in this important area

The Nature of Business Transformation Richard Kelly, 2022-03-17 This book is a practical guide for business professionals to develop and improve business intelligence and collective decision making within their organisation It proposes a progressive reconfiguration of the traditional business operating system using a nature inspired framework called swarm facilitation that enables and facilitates collective decision making Organisations have followed the same rigid formula of problem solving and decision making for over 100 years It is dominated by centralised governance and pyramid decision making Such an approach is no longer fit for purpose in an environment of employee disengagement artificial intelligence AI superintelligence and Covid 19 fallout By the end of this book readers will be able to solve organisational problems and challenges collectively using swarm intelligence upgrade and future proof business operating systems to reflect a more collective decision making approach fit for the new connected economy and Industry 4.0 embrace mindset quotients that support people working in a more networked self organising and collective environment The book is important reading for leaders and managers who are focused on building organisational capital and engagement and gaining value from the emerging technology by evolving their business operating system into a digital ecosystem as part of an ongoing digital transformation strategy It will also appeal to experts working in the field of organisational change and development both within the organisation and as consultants New Jersey Register ,2014-03
