This collection of new essays explores Marvel's more than five decades of Hulk comics. The contributors analyze the Hulk and his supporting cast in their shifting historical contexts, offering insights into both our popular entertainment and our cultural history. Topics include the Cold War's influence on early Incredible Hulk issues; a feminist reading of She-Hulk; and writer Peter David's focus on the AIDS crisis.

Critical Essays on English and Bengali Detective Fiction Debayan Deb Barman, 2022-02-28 Critical Essays on English and Bengali Detective Fiction brings together three strains of detective fiction: British, American, and Bengali. The import of detective fiction from Britain has influenced generations of writers of Bengali detective fiction. In this anthology of critical essays by scholars on detective fiction, we have divided the contents into three groups. First, there are essays on classic British detective fiction with essays on Charles Dickens, Wilkie Collins, Arthur Conan Doyle, Agatha Christie, P. D. James, Kate Atkinson, and Margery Allingham. The second section is on American hard-boiled fiction with essays on Dashiell Hammett and Raymond Chandler. The third section is on Bengali detective fiction with essays on Hemendra Kumar Roy, Saradindu Bandyopadhyay, and Satyajit Ray. Together, these essays bring three strains of detective fiction into conversation to show the gradual postcolonial attempt of Bengali detective fiction to outgrow colonial influences and create an original and organic tradition of regional and vernacular detective fiction.

Desiring Machines Thomas Ryba, Sandor Goodhart, 2025-11-27 As artificial intelligence assumes increasing prominence in our lives, a host of questions arise, particularly if one holds a view of humans as inherently social or mimetic, such as René Girard. Does the potential for self-awareness in artificial intelligence come with mimetic desire in the way Girard claims it does for human beings? Thomas Ryba and Sandor Goodhart bring together a team of renowned scholars to theorize artificial intelligence from a Girardian perspective for the first time. Chapters present cutting-edge reflections on Girard's mimetic theory in connection with science, humans, fiction, film, philosophy, and God, shedding light on artificial intelligence and the consequences of the implementation of humanoid robots into daily life. In Part I, each argument is followed by a response spanning topics from the philosophic foundations of mimetic theory and cognitive science through to scapegoating, mimesis, and the human future. Drawing on close interpretative readings of films including A.I. Artificial Intelligence, Ex Machina, and HER, as well as literary productions, philosophic essays, and theological concepts, it offers a novel approach to utilize the seminal ideas of Girard.

Setting out new challenges and insights this interdisciplinary volume is an essential starting point for students and scholars of Girard mimetic theory artificial intelligence robotics film philosophy of religion and ethics
