A World of Work Ilana M. Gershon, 2015-11-25 Ever wondered what it would be like to be a street magician in Paris? A fish farmer in Norway? A costume designer in Bollywood? This playful and accessible look at different types of work around the world delivers a wealth of information and advice about a wide array of jobs and professions. The value of this book is twofold. For young people or middle-aged people who are undecided about their career paths and feel constrained in their choices, A World of Work offers an expansive vision. For ethnographers, this book offers an excellent example of using the practical details of everyday life to shed light on larger structural issues. Each chapter in this collection of ethnographic fiction could be considered a job manual. Yet not any typical job manual: to do justice to the ways details about jobs are conveyed in culturally specific ways, the authors adopt a range of voices and perspectives. One chapter is written as though it was a letter from an older sister counseling her brother on how to be a doctor in Malawi. Another is framed as a eulogy for a well-loved village magistrate in Papua New Guinea who may have been killed by sorcery. Beneath the novelty of the examples are some serious messages that Ilana Gershon highlights in her introduction. These ethnographies reveal the connection between work and culture, the impact of societal values on the conditions of employment. Readers will be surprised at how much they can learn about an entire culture by being given the chance to understand just one occupation.

Was it Something I Said? Ros Thomas, 2014 Sometimes I fantasise about my bloke leaning over the kitchen sink. I like to imagine him up to his elbows in suds, teaching that saucy lesson with the burnt-on scrambled eggs. A lesson in brute force. The stories in Was It Something I Said are for anyone who has grown up, fallen in love, failed, persevered, and is still looking for the meaning of modern life. Laugh out loud, funny, revealing.

and profoundly genuine Ros Thomas will have you reminiscing and nodding in recognition Whether writing about the homesick Irishman she found on the beach her foiled attempt to seduce her husband or why dog people and cat people can never be friends journalist Ros Thomas writes with the kind of humour and clarity that keeps her readers coming back to her columns week after week Lemon-Aid New and Used Cars and Trucks 1990-2015 Phil Edmonston,2013-11-18 Lemon Aid New and Used Cars and Trucks 1990 2015 steers the confused and anxious buyer through the purchase of new and used vehicles unlike any other car and truck book on the market Dr Phil Canada s best known automotive expert for more than 42 years pulls no punches Living the 1.5 Degree Lifestyle Lloyd Alter,2021-09-14 Stop thinking about efficiency and start thinking about sufficiency Living the 1 5 Degree Lifestyle reveals the carbon cost of everything we do identifying where we can make big reductions while not sweating the small stuff The international scientific consensus is that we have less than a decade to drastically slash our collective carbon emissions to keep global heating to 1 5 degrees and avert catastrophe This means that many of us have to cut our individual carbon footprints by over 80% to 2 5 tonnes per person per year by 2030 But where to start Drawing on Lloyd Alter s journey to track his daily carbon emissions and live the 1 5 degree lifestyle coverage includes What it looks like to live a rich and truly green life From take out food to bikes and cars to your internet usage finding the big wins ignoring the trivial and spotting marketing ploys The invisible embodied carbon baked into everything we own and why electric cars aren t the answer How to start thinking about sufficiency rather than efficiency The roles of individuals versus governments and corporations Grounded in meticulous research and yet accessible to all Living the 1 5 Degree Lifestyle is a journey toward a life of quality over quantity and sufficiency over efficiency as we race to save our only home from catastrophic heating California.
