

Part 2

Argument

✓ Directions: Closely read each of the four texts provided on pages 12 through 17 and write a source-based argument on the topic below. You may use the margin to take notes as you read and scrap paper to plan your response. Write your argument beginning on page 1 of your essay booklet.

* Topic: Should companies be allowed to track consumers' shopping or other preferences without their permission? 3/4

✓ Your Task: Carefully read each of the four texts provided. Then, using evidence from at least three of the texts, write a well-developed argument regarding companies being allowed to track consumers' shopping or other preferences without their permission. Clearly establish your claim, distinguish your claim from alternate or opposing claims, and use specific, relevant, and sufficient evidence from at least three of the texts to develop your argument. Do not simply summarize each text.

✓ Guidelines:

Be sure to

- ☐ Establish your claim regarding companies being allowed to track consumers' shopping or other preferences without their permission. (topic)
- ☐ Distinguish your claim from alternate or opposing claims & counterclaim
- ☐ Use specific, relevant, and sufficient evidence from at least three of the texts to develop your argument
- ☐ Identify each source that you reference by text number and line (e.g., Text 1, line 4 or Text 2, graphic)
- ☐ Organize your ideas in a cohesive and coherent manner
- ☐ Maintain a formal style of writing
- ☐ Follow the conventions of standard written English

Annie S. Mendenhall

January 2014 English 11 Regents Short Response:

Approaches to Inclusive English Classrooms Kate Mastruserio Reynolds, 2015-03-02 This book provides educators with an accessible guide to best practices concerning content based instruction CBI models and their use in English learner inclusive classrooms The author effectively bridges the gap between theory and practice with a critical analysis of practical examples and diverse strategies for the inclusion of English learners into K 12 general education courses The book also raises controversial questions regarding who is qualified to teach English learners and who is responsible for doing so looking at the difficulties faced by both general educators and ESL teachers in Inclusive Classrooms By providing a lens through which both ESL teachers and general educators are able to analyze compare and contrast a range of widely employed CBI methods this book allows teachers to make informed decisions in their EL program development and work with English learners in K 12 schools

Desegregation State Annie S. Mendenhall, 2022-04-15 The only book length study of the ways that postsecondary desegregation litigation and policy affected writing instruction and assessment in US colleges Desegregation State provides a history of federal enforcement of higher education desegregation and its impact on writing programs from 1970 to 1988 Focusing on the University System of Georgia and two of its public colleges in Savannah one a historically segregated white college and the other a historically Black college Annie S Mendenhall shows how desegregation enforcement promoted and shaped writing programs by presenting literacy remediation and testing as critical to desegregation efforts in southern and border states Formerly segregated state university systems crafted desegregation plans that gave them more control over policies for admissions remediation and retention These plans created literacy requirements admissions and graduation tests remedial classes and even writing centers and writing across the curriculum programs that reshaped the landscape of college writing instruction and denied the demands of Black students civil rights activists and historically Black colleges and universities for major changes to university systems This history details the profound influence of desegregation and resistance to desegregation on the ways that writing is taught and assessed in colleges today Desegregation State provides WPAs and writing teachers with a disciplinary history for understanding racism in writing assessment and writing programs Mendenhall brings emerging scholarship on the racialization of institutions into the field showing why writing studies must pay more attention to how writing programs have institutionalized racist literacy ideologies through arguments about student placement individualized writing instruction and writing assessment
