Get Off Your Assets Neale S. Godfrey, 2025-01-07 Booklist starred review From creating a money map asking what money habits do I want to change to establishing a no magic money log a budgeting exercise and assembling a personal financial team including a financial advisor accountant and perhaps a forensic accountant Godfrey provides readers with enough information to begin improving their financial outlook as they also manage divorce proceedings without being overwhelmed with complicated terminology or unnecessarily specific finance jargon highly recommended Step by step financial advice for women over 50 thinking about divorce knee deep in it or designing life after their gray divorce You had a long term marriage You had kids bought your dream house set up investment accounts and even saved for your grandchildren's college education. You now look forward to your golden years winding down and enjoying those put off hobbies and long fantasized trips. The kids are gone but the flames in your relationship have flickered out and you can't imagine facing the next 30 years with a partner with whom you share nothing. You know you need to do something about it but you don't know where to start because in most cases he has been handling the money part of your relationship.

Get Off Your Assets: The Ultimate Financial Guide to a Woman's Gray Divorce is a comprehensive guide for any woman facing these money challenges. The book gives tips and tools for women thinking about divorce, knee-deep in it or designing life after their gray divorce. The book outlines step-by-step advice for women to design their team of lawyers, accountants, and financial experts to guide them through the process. The unique approach of this book is that it engages the reader via real-life stories, quizzes, and worksheets, leaving the reader with a practical and inspirational confidence that she will be able to not only navigate this process but come out of it with a solid financial foundation for her new life.

How Not To Tear Your Family Apart by Carroll S. Golden, 2021-10-28. Carroll truly hits the mark by first identifying an issue virtually all of us will have to deal with and then using practical, sensible, and insightful ways to approach this delicate balancing act. Kudos to her and her willingness to provide a much-needed reality check.

Peter Gelbwaks, CLTC Chairman Emeritus, The National LTC Network, Past Chairman, The National Alliance of Insurance Agencies. Experience is an excellent teacher, but it can be a harsh master. We are living longer, and aging takes its toll on our ability to remain totally independent. No matter how you define family, you will find yourself in the role of caregiver, caring for a caregiver, or being cared for by a caregiver. Life doesn't stop while you're caught up in caring and juggling your own life. With no real training for this multi-faceted, multi-generational role, you must find a path that doesn't destroy relationships or create financial havoc. Carroll S. Golden's three simple steps kickstart critical conversations. They offer a path of discovery. Each step provides an easy-to-use format to speed your progress. Lists, links, references, and an abundance of information guide you along. The result is an actionable, realistic plan so you don't tear your family and relationships apart. Uncover a financially stable plan for you, your family, and the people you love. Moving through the steps is inclusive, not exclusive, minimizing family discord and confusion. In the end, you have a plan for someone you love, a support system in place, a practical financial approach, and something to hope for: harmony.
