Invocation For Awards Ceremony:

A Good Kiss Marshall S. Ball, 2002-03-01 Each day has a purpose We make that purpose Marshall Stewart Ball Marshall Ball believes the key to happiness lies in opening our hearts to good God This simple but profound message comes from a singularly extraordinary messenger Fourteen year old Marshall has spent his life confined to a wheelchair He cannot speak write or walk and he does not have the strength to use a computer without assistance Yet he has transcended the limits of his body by communicating through a painstaking transcription process a process that since childhood has been his means of sharing his amazingly sophisticated and perceptive expressions on the topics of God love kindness and freedom These powerful writings have not only astonished and moved those closest to Marshall but touched millions in his bestseller Kiss of God In this powerful new collection of his poems letters and affirmations Marshall also includes answers to questions people have asked him With startling beauty and disarming simplicity he teaches us to appreciate our roles in life no matter how difficult they may be and to love and respect knowledge others and God Marshall s message of hope that true joy comes from accepting God s love is a gift to savor and share with our loved ones time and time again Historical Review United States. Department of the Army. Office of the Chief of Chaplains, 1965 The "Latin Explosion," Media Audiences, and the Marketing of Latino Panethnicity Katynka Zazueta Martinez, 2003 Marketers politicians and media institutions often refer to the Latino population as a panethnic construct a collectivity made up of peoples of several national origins This study describes how Latinos contribute to react to and challenge this construct The study begins with an overview of pan Latin American liberation movements that emerged during the period from 1810 to 1825 when many Latin American countries were engaged in the struggle for independence The historical analysis of Latino panethnic identity also addresses Puerto Rican and Chicano civil rights movements and the diverse racial classifications of Latinos by the U S Census This discussion illustrates how a Latin American collective consciousness has been invoked for purposes that range from the challenging of imperialist forces to the promotion of a niche market While it is true that Latinos have limited control over how they are categorized I argue that identity is never entirely imposed by market forces or the state To make this argument I present case studies on the creation of Latina magazine and the development of the Latin Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences LARAS Latina was created in 1996 and LARAS presented the first Latin Grammy award ceremony in 2000 By focusing on print music and the televisual presentation of the award ceremony I discuss the ways in which culture is transformed into a capitalist production The case studies situate the creation of Latino media within a larger body of communication research on the ideological function of popular culture and the marketing of ethnicity The textual analysis of Latina and the Latin Grammy award ceremony is enriched by an audience study conducted with Latina middle school students living in a San Diego town that borders Tijuana Mexico The study based on ethnographic work conducted over a two year period documents the ways in which young girls police the boundaries of Latino identity while actively consuming challenging and critiquing media that is marketed for them The diverse methodologies and interdisciplinary approach that inform this study serve to theorize the construction of Latino panethnic identity by situating Latinos as both consumers and producers of Latino oriented media Air Force Magazine ,2016-07 West's Federal Supplement ,2002 Cases decided in the United States district courts United States Court of International Trade and rulings of the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation

Cavell,2002-12-28 Exporting Made In America Democracy examines the various contradictory tensions that democracy promotion produces in the context of an increasingly capitalist globalization of the world that has accelerated in the post Cold War period and into the 21st century According to the author the Cold War between the U S and the Soviet Union 1945 1991 brought the question of democracy to the forefront of modern political debate and the subsequent collapse of the Soviet model was in part a consequence of the U S projection of its own capitalist democracy as a model to be exported and emulated throughout the world Cavell argues the promise of democracy as an Enlightenment ideal has been to transcend the dichotomy of ruler and ruled by establishing self rule of the people themselves as the normative basis of governance in the modern world To the contrary the U S National Endowment for Democracy NED is promoting a market oriented democracy benefiting corporate interests which enhance U S economic and political hegemony Proceedings, 21st National
