J Corp Organisation Report:

Corporate Bodies and Guilty Minds William S. Laufer, 2006-08 We live in an era defined by corporate greed and malfeasance one in which unprecedented accounting frauds and failures of compliance run rampant In order to calm investor fears revive perceptions of legitimacy in markets and demonstrate the resolve of state and federal regulators a host of reforms high profile investigations and symbolic prosecutions have been conducted in response But are they enough In this timely work William S Laufer argues that even with recent legal reforms corporate criminal law continues to be ineffective As evidence Laufer considers the failure of courts and legislatures to fashion liability rules that fairly attribute blame for organizations He analyzes the games that corporations play to deflect criminal responsibility And he also demonstrates how the exchange of cooperation for prosecutorial leniency and amnesty belies true law enforcement But none of these factors according to Laufer trumps the fact that there is no single constituency or interest group that strongly and consistently advocates the importance and priority of corporate criminal liability In the absence of a new standard of corporate liability the power of regulators to keep corporate abuses in check will remain insufficient A necessary corrective to our current climate of graft and greed Corporate Bodies and Guilty Minds will be essential to policymakers and legal minds alike This timely work offers a dispassionate analysis of problems relating to corporate crime Harvard Law Review Annual Report of the Public Service Commission New York (State). Rothwell, 2024-10-03 Ongoing conduct issues in the banking sector have sparked global discussions on the effectiveness of the corporate governance of these institutions This dissertation commences by exploring the internationally evolving regulatory landscape of prudential corporate governance and the role of bank senior management within these frameworks using a law and economics perspective Two model jurisdictions the United Kingdom and the Netherlands are identified as pioneers with their emerging approaches to tackle the persisting challenges

Against this backdrop the study turns to Switzerland It fills the gap of a comprehensive supervisory law analysis of bank senior management For this purpose the fragmented provisions are distilled from their institutional embedding and structured along the supervisory law life cycle of authorisation ongoing supervision and enforcement Along each phase the respective novel approaches from the model jurisdictions are presented Through these analyses the dissertation identifies gaps and inefficiencies in the Swiss supervisory law framework These findings are synthesised in order to gain a holistic view of the current setup Concluding future pathways for Switzerland are presented also inspired by international developments to propose a more structured robust and efficient framework for the regulatory oversight of the senior management of Swiss banks The Times The Times, London,1919 Law and CSR in COVID and Post-COVID Times Akanksha
