Jack The Ripper Caught In The Act:

Jack the Ripper Caught in the Act Mike Dant, 2014-07-23 Who was Jack The Ripper On August 31 1888 at 4 45 A M an ordinary family man and cart driver was discovered standing alone on a long dark desolate street next to the body of the first ripper victim His own explanation of how he came to be there proves he must have been at the scene for some time before he was discovered A half hour later he can be placed within feet of where a second ripper murder will occur 8 days later a murder which may have been committed to throw suspicion off himself and implicate the only other man that knew he was the killer This is the only suspect that can be placed at the scene of a murder connected to others and openly lied to conceal his true identity What is known about this mans movements during the time of the killings explains all aspects of the ripper murders such as Why was the killer never caught Why did the murders occur where they did Why did the killer leave Whitechapel and move into the city of London to commit the fourth murder Where was the killer when house to house searches were made Did the killer know his victims There are many mysterious questions surrounding the ripper murders and this man can answer them all Jack the Ripper--Case Solved, 1891 J.J. Hainsworth, 2015-10-27 Is there anything new to be read about Jack the Ripper whose identity has been sought by countless Ripperologists for more than 120 years This book answers an emphatic Yes Drawing on recently discovered sources the author argues that the Ripper s identity was no mystery to the police in 1891 Police chief Sir Melville Macnaghten claimed to know the truth from private information but his source has remained unknown for more than a century Here the identity of Sir Melville s informer is revealed explaining why the Ripper was disguised as an insane surgeon for public consumption A number of photos are included some never before seen The Trial of Jack the Ripper Euan Macpherson, 2005 The police investigation uncovered some disturbing details The accused was a small dark haired man who was known to have been violent towards women He had been born and brought up in the Midlands but had moved to the East End of London in the late autumn of 1887 On 21 January 1889 he and his wife travelled by boat to Dundee This meant that he had arrived in London before the start of the Jack the Ripper murders and had left around the same time that they ceased Could this be coincidence people wondered Could it also be a coincidence that the murder in Dundee carried all the hallmarks of a ripper murder In the month before the trial the local newspapers in Dundee began to run sensational stories linking the accused with the notorious Whitechapel murders When the trial opened to a packed courtroom many in the public gallery were wondering if the man standing in the dock was none other than Jack the Ripper himself In this sensational and groundbreaking book Euan Macpherson presents the evidence that the long arm of the law really did catch up with Jack the Ripper in a dingy basement flat in Dundee in the cold winter months of early 1889 Jack the Ripper and Black Magic Spiro Dimolianis, 2011-08-10 Jack the Ripper is a gothic tale of Victorian conspiracies the supernatural secret societies and the police Scotland Yard hunted a serial killer shrouded in politics as the mutilator of East End prostitutes This book uses historic sources and rare official reports to reveal dark and supernatural aspects of the
