Madhyamik History Suggetions 2015:

International Issues in SEND and Inclusion Alan Hodkinson, Zeta Williams-Brown, 2022-09-27 International Issues in SEND and Inclusion brings together a collection of cutting edge researches on approaches to special education needs and disability education across 6 continents and within 12 countries. Written by authors who are experts in their own countries in relation to special educational needs and disability, the book provides a unique knowledge and understanding of different international perspectives in special educational needs, disability and inclusion. The chapters present extended case studies and reflect on current policy, practice and theory within that context, challenging assumptions which can dominate the policy and practice of inclusive education. Each of the six continents has a separate section and introduction within the book to offer a relevant approach and context for analysis. The book will be of great interest to academics, researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of inclusion, special educational needs and disability, teacher education and comparative education.
