Madre Piccola Cristina Ali Farah:

Madre piccola Ubah Cristina Ali Farah, 2022-05-06T00:00:00+02:00 Barni e Domenica Axado sono cresciute insieme a Mogadiscio. La loro infanzia spensierata all'interno di un ambiente familiare unito e protetto. Allo scoppio della guerra civile per sono costrette a separarsi. Barni trova a Roma un faticoso equilibrio grazie al lavoro di ostetrica e riesce a circondarsi di nuovi affetti. Domenica Axado invece sradicata e trapiantata in un contesto diverso inizia a peregrinare senza meta. Solo un decennio dopo in attesa di un figlio si ricongiungerà alla cugina. Barni sarà la habaryar madre piccola del bambino e grazie alla nascita di Taariikh che significa Storia le due donne potranno finalmente riannodare quei fili che sembravano sciolti per sempre. Alle loro voci che si alternano nella narrazione e hanno il sapore di un racconto orale si unisce quella di Taageere marito di Domenica Axado. I ricordi frammentati piano piano si ricompongono e le esistenze disperse delle persone che hanno fatto parte delle loro vite tornano finalmente a formare un quadro unico. In un mix linguistico affascinante di intensa poetica dove l'italiano si mescola e segue il ritmo del somalo. Madre piccola pubblicato per la prima volta nel 2007 affronta temi ancora oggi di drammatica attualità come i traumi della guerra e il dolore della diaspora. Black Europe and the African Diaspora Darlene Clark Hine, Trica Danielle Keaton, Stephen Small, 2023-12-11. The presence of Blacks in a number of European societies has drawn increasing interest from scholars, policymakers and the general public. This interdisciplinary and multi disciplinary collection penetrates the multifaceted Black presence in Europe and in so doing complicates the notions of race, belonging, desire and identities assumed and presumed in revealing portraits of Black experiences in a European context. In focusing on contemporary intellectual currents and themes the contributors theorize and re-imagine a range of historical and contemporary issues related to the broader questions of blackness, diaspora, hegemony, transnationalism and Black Europe itself as lived and perceived realities. Contributors are Allison Blakely, Jacqueline Nassy Brown, Tina Campt, Fred Constant, Alessandra Di Maio, Philomena Essed, Terri Francis, Barnor Hesse, Darlene Clark Hine, Dienke Hondius, Eileen Julien, Trica Danielle Keaton, Kwame Nimako, Tiffany Ruby, Patterson T. Denean Sharpley, Whiting, Stephen Small, Tyler Stovall, Alexander G. Weheliye, Gloria Wekker and Michelle M. Wright. Possible Spaces of Somali Belonging Vivian Gerrand, 2016-06-13. What happens when Somalis migrate to countries with which they have few cultural ties? What helps Somalis to feel at home in their new Western countries of residence? Possible Spaces of Somali Belonging explores representations of Somali resettlement to understand the mechanics of contemporary belonging and the challenges faced by Western societies as they attempt to integrate Somali migrants. How do particular representations contribute to or detract from Somali belonging? In the contexts of Australia and Italy taken as case studies, Somalis are marginalised in different ways. With a multi disciplinary approach this book examines different forms of Somali representation in Australia and Italy that engender a sense of belonging and expands exclusive definitions of nationhood. Islamic Studies Series Volume 21. Literature of the Somali Diaspora Marco Medugno, 2024-07-11. The first study of

Anglophone and Italian novels by Somali diasporic authors offering a new critical framework for multilingual and transnational analysis of Somali literature Building on the latest scholarship about multilingual contexts diaspora studies and the rapidly expanding field of Italian postcolonial studies Marco Medugno examines Somali diasporic literature with a comparative perspective Considering works written in English and Italian he argues that Somali diasporic authors share similar themes and aesthetics thus creating an interliterary community within the diaspora space By using multilingualism as a starting point Medugno provides significant insights into how Somali national and individual identities are constructed in diasporic global contexts through geography style form language and the re writing of national histories emerging out of colonization and independence Analysing acclaimed Somali novels such as Nuruddin Farah's Links and Crossbones Igiaba Scego's Adua and Cristina Ali Farah's Little Mother he questions any definition of local as provincial instead considering it a site for interrogating global concerns Literature of the Somali Diaspora is organized around three themes spatiality language and resistance help to contextualize authors forced by the decades long Somali Civil War to write outside Somalia and in different languages including Somali Italian English German Dutch and Arabic within global literary circuits Their work thus creates a literature not confined within national borders but an interliterary global community a transnational and multilingual space in which they share world aesthetic ideologies challenge and engage with literary traditions in different languages and show an interplay between diverse cultures

The Somali Within Brioni Simone, 2017-07-05 The recent histories of Italy and Somalia are closely linked Italy colonized Somalia from the end of the 19th century to 1941 and held the territory by UN mandate from 1950 to 1960 Italy is also among the destination countries of the Somali diaspora which increased in 1991 after civil war Nonetheless this colonial and postcolonial cultural encounter has often been neglected Critically evaluating Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari's concept of minor literature as well as drawing on postcolonial literary studies The Somali Within analyses the processes of linguistic and cultural translation and self translation the political engagement with race gender class and religious discrimination and the complex strategies of belonging and unbelonging at work in the literary works in Italian by authors of Somali origins Brioni proposes that the minor Somali Italian connection might offer a major insight into the transnational dimension of contemporary Italian literature and Somali culture
