Maerlants wereld / druk 11 Frits Pieter Oostrom, 2013-05-25 Studie over de tijd en het milieu waarin de 13e eeuwse letterkundige Jacob van Maerlant leefde en schreef Syntagmata Dirk Sacré, Jan Papy, 2009 This collective volume has been dedicated to two distinguished scholars of Neo Latin Studies Both the rich variety of subjects dealt with and the international diversity of the contributors reflect the wide interests of the celebrated Neo Latinists and the contemporary status of the discipline itself In addition to studies of Petrarch Lorenzo Valla Erasmus Vives Thomas More Eobanus Hessus Lipsius Tycho Brahe Jean de la Fontaine and Jacob Cats it also includes contributions on Renaissance commentaries and editions of classical authors such as Homer Seneca and Horace on Neo Latin novels epistolography and Renaissance rhetoric on Latin translations from the vernacular and invectives against Napoleon on the teaching of Latin in the nineteenth century and on the present day didactics of Neo Latin Transforming Europe in the Images of the World, 1110-1500 Natalia Petrovskaja, 2025-10-01 This is the first book to examine the wide and important geographical tradition that arose from the description of the world in the Imago mundi a medieval encyclopedic bestseller almost unrivalled in popularity from its composition in the 1110s well into the age of print The Imago mundi was translated into most European vernaculars and extracts from it were adapted into vernacular works ranging from encyclopedias to literary fiction verse and prose This is the first study to examine this tradition as a unified whole It focuses in particular on the permutations undergone by the depiction of the region designated as Europe in the original text and its later adaptations The book demonstrates the incredible flexibility of the original text and how this enabled the transformation of this spatial description to suit the linguistic political and cultural needs of vernacular adaptations Early Printed Narrative Literature in Western Europe Bart Besamusca, Elisabeth de Bruijn, Frank Willaert, 2019-11-05 The essays in this volume are concerned with early printed narrative texts in Western Europe The aim of this book is to consider to what extent the shift from hand written to printed books left its mark on narrative literature in a number of vernacular languages Did the advent of printing bring about changes in the corpus of narrative texts when compared with the corpus extant in manuscript copies Did narrative texts that already existed in manuscript form undergo significant modifications when they began to be printed How did this crucial media development affect the nature of these narratives Which strategies did early printers develop to make their texts commercially attractive Which social classes were the target audiences for their editions Around half of the articles focus on developments in the history of early printed narrative texts others discuss publication strategies This book provides an impetus for cross linguistic research It invites scholars from various disciplines to get involved in an international conversation about fifteenth and sixteenth century narrative literature Maerlant-nummer, 1996 Literature without Frontiers Cornelis van der Haven, Youri Desplenter, J.A. Parente Jr., Jan Bloemendal, 2023-07-31 This volume explores the indispensability of a transnational perspective for the construction and writing of literary histories of the Low Countries from

1200 1800 It looks at the role of mediators such as translators printers and editors at characteristics of literary genres and the possibilities they offered for literary boundary crossing and adaptation and at the role of regions and urban centers as multilingual hubs This collection demonstrates the centrality of transnational perspectives for elucidating the complex inter relationship between Netherlandic and European literary history The Low Countries were a dynamic site for new literary production and transnational exchange that shaped and reshaped the intellectual landscape of premodern Europe Contributors include Lia van Gemert Lucas van der Deijl Feike Dietz Paul Wackers David Napolitano James A Parente Jr Frank Willaert Youri Desplenter Bart Besamusca Frans R E Blom and Jan Bloemendal Studies in the Reception of the Historia Scholastica of Peter Comestor Maria Sherwood-Smith, 2000 The Historia Scholastica circa 1170 mingles biblical narrative Jewish legends and commentary and was a popular source of biblical material for authors until the Reformation Maria Sherwood Smith gives an introduction to the sources and transmission of the Latin work before investigating its reception in detail in two thirteenth century German works the Schwarzwälder Predigten and the Weltchronik of Rudolf von Ems Briefer analyses of Jacob van Maerlant's Scholastica and the Historiebijbel van 1360 provide further context Looking in this way at the different functions the work fulfils for later authors one discerns a growing awareness of the distinction between it and the text of the Bible It is suggested that this enhances the Historia Scholastica's reputation as a safeguard of orthodoxy
