Normal Instructor and Teachers World, 1923 Functional Differentiation in Hittite Festival Texts James M. Burgin, 2019 This book investigates how the clay tablet record of the Hittite festival tradition interfaced with the reality of Hittite festival performance Previous studies of Hittite festival texts have assumed that the main festival action was recorded in a more or less neutral objective fashion i e recording what was essential to the festival as a whole Through an examination of the so called outline festival texts as well as a new study of the four Old Hittite manuscripts of the KI LAM Great Assembly one of the spectacular highpoints of the Hittite festival calendar it is argued instead that the Hittite festival texts recorded the multiple perspectives based on their specialized needs of the cultic actors tasked with correct performance of the rites The multi perspective hypothesis of Hittite festival texts leads to a reassessment of the Hittite festival corpus as it is preserved Instead of interpreting Hittite festival texts as products of scholastic learning or documentation the texts are shown to be at least in origin the working documents of expert practitioners produced in the planning and production of festival performances This interpretation of multiple functionally specialized perspectives for the Hittite festival texts carries implications for the festival corpus as a whole Events Feasibility and Development William O'Toole, 2011 Operational integrity and its feasibility The History of Freemasonry, Its Antiquities, Symbols, Constitutions, Customs, Etc.
