Cinematic Modernism and Contemporary Film Howard Finn, 2022-10-06 Cinema was the most important new artistic medium of the twentieth century and modernism was the most important new aesthetic movement across the arts in the twentieth century However what exactly is the relationship between cinema and modernism Cinematic Modernism and Contemporary Film explores how in the early twentieth century cinema came to be seen as one of the new technologies which epitomised modernity and how cinema itself reflected ideas hopes and fears concerning modern life Howard Finn examines the emergence of a new international style of cinema combining a poetic aesthetic of the image with genre based fictional narrative and documentary realism He provides concise accounts of how theorists such as Andr Bazin Siegfried Kracauer Gilles Deleuze and Jacques Ranci re have discussed this cinematic aesthetic clarifying debates over terms such as realism classical and avant garde as well as recent controversies over terms such as slow cinema and vernacular modernism He further argues the influence of modernism through close readings of many contemporary films including films by Abbas Kiarostami B la Tarr Jia Zhangke and Angela Schanelec Drawing on a broad range of examples including Soviet montage Italian neorealism postwar new waves and the new cinema of Taiwan and Iran this book explores the cultural significance of modernism and its lasting influence over cinema

Modernism Today Sjeff Houppermans, Pete Liebrechts, Jan Baetens, Otto Boele, 2013-10-25 This book manifests at least four recent shifts and tendencies within Modernist studies in general that point at the expansion of this increasingly interdisciplinary field First Modernist studies has seen a temporal expansion to the extent that scholars in the field have come to turn to both the pre and posterior history of Modernism Second the field has witnessed a spatial expansion in that increasingly so researchers have also come to scrutinize the Modernisms of regions at the fringes of Europe and beyond Thirdly a vertical expansion too has marked Modernist studies in recent decades not only by further expanding the canon of women writers and exploring the continuum between high and lowbrow but also by looking at the artistic and mediatized hierarchies and cross fertilizations operative in the period A fourth conceptual expansion of the field shows that whereas concepts such as middlebrow arri re garde and to some extent even avant garde were once exotic notions of at best marginal importance in European Modernist studies they now form part and parcel of the field complicating and expanding it conceptually

Dada and Existentialism Elizabeth Benjamin, 2016-08-30 Offering new critical approaches to Dada as quintessential part of the Avant Garde Dada and Existentialism the Authenticity of Ambiguity reassesses the movement as a form of proto Existentialist philosophy Dada is often dismissed as an anti art movement with a merely destructive theoretical impetus French Existentialism is often condemned for its perceived quietist implications However closer analysis reveals a preoccupation with philosophy in the former and with art in the latter Moreover neither was nonsensical or meaningless both reveal a rich individualist ethics aimed at the amelioration of the individual and society The first major comparative study of Dada and Existentialism this text contributes new perspectives on Dada as movement historical legacy and field of study Analysing Dada works through Existentialist literature across the themes of choice alienation responsibility freedom and truth the text posits that Dada and Existentialism both advocate the creation of a self that aims for authenticity through ambiguity

Screening Modernism András Bálint Kovács, 2007 Casting fresh light on the renowned productions of auteurs like

Antonioni Fellini and Bresson and drawing out from the shadows a range of important but lesser known works Screening Modernism is the first comprehensive study of European art cinema s postwar heyday Spanning from the 1950s to the 1970s Andr s B lint Kov cs s encyclopedic work argues that cinematic modernism was not a unified movement with a handful of styles and themes but rather a stunning range of variations on the core principles of modern art Illustrating how the concepts of modernism and the avant garde variously manifest themselves in film Kov cs begins by tracing the emergence of art cinema as a historical category He then explains the main formal characteristics of modern styles and forms as well as their intellectual foundation Finally drawing on modernist theory and philosophy along the way he provides an innovative history of the evolution of modern European art cinema Exploring not only modernism s origins but also its stylistic thematic and cultural avatars Screening Modernism ultimately lays out creative new ways to think about the historical periods that comprise this golden age of film
