Gender, Space, and Time Dorothy Moss,2006-04-13 Drawing on the work of Henri Lefebvre and Barbara Adam Gender Space and Time is a brilliant study that offers a unique and original threefold conceptualization of how space and time is developed and applied in an empirical study of women s lives Author Dorothy Moss focuses on the everyday practice and experience of women higher education students at a community college in northern England Women s action is considered in relation to the complex and interconnected spheres of paid work home leisure community and higher education Through highlighting concepts of space and time the complex relationship between networks of power and personal action gains visibility Moss conceptualizes women as centers of action and demonstrates the ways in which they construct personal pathways connect different spheres of experience integrate new time demands into the multiple rhythms of their everyday lives and carve out personal space Gender Space and Time is a timely and compelling work certain to be of interest to scholars of sociology women s studies and anthropology Essays That Will Get You into College Dan Kaufman,Chris Dowhan,2003 Updated with much new material this book presents approximately 50 model college admission essays that will inspire students who must prepare original essays of their own as part of today s college entrance process Students will also find extensive advice on the do s and don ts for writing a successful essay plus instruction on the process of organizing ideas writing a rough draft then re writing a final finished essay for presentation The book s model essays come from successful Ivy League college applicants and each is supplemented with critical comments pointing out its strengths and weaknesses
