John Holt Bloomsbury Library Of Educational Thought:

John Holt Roland Meighan, 2014-10-23 John Holt the American educator was passionate about the need for alternatives to traditional institutional schooling seeing schools as often hindering children from learning rather than helping them he became an important proponent of homeschooling or unschooling was a pioneer in youth rights theory and had a profound influence on school reform in particular and educational philosophy in general Here Roland Meighan challenges the often held notion that Holt's work was romantic and impractical within the context of compulsory schooling He brings together the work and thinking of John Holt into applicable theory for education students enabling readers to appreciate the view that individuals outside the education system can influence and change what is happening within it John Locke Alexander Moseley, 2014-10-23 John Locke is one of the great minds in educational history Drawing on his perceptive observations of families and children he saw the importance of adapting learning to the child's dispositions Critical of schools he is the fountainhead of home tutoring child centred learning and the importance of enjoyable learning But for Locke learning was not about facts a good education produced gentlemen who could in turn adapt themselves to commerce and politics Locke's philosophy helped provide rigour to the scientific revolution the impetus for the expansion of schools for the poor which should be profitable and child psychology Alexander Mosely sets Locke's educational writings in their context with a sensitive reading of what Locke understood by education and highlights the relevance of the study of Locke's work to our understanding of education today Leo Tolstoy Daniel Moulin, 2014-10-23 How do we know what we should teach And how should we go about teaching it These deceptively simple questions about education perplexed Tolstoy Before writing his famous novels War and Peace and Anna Karenina Tolstoy opened an experimental school on his estate to try and answer them His experiences there incited his life long inquiry into the meaning and purpose of religion literature art and life itself In this text Daniel Moulin tells the story of the course of Tolstoy's educational thought and how it relates to Tolstoy's fiction and other writings It begins with his experience of being a child and adolescent incorporates his travels in Europe the experimental school his literature and his views on art philosophy and spirituality Throughout the relevance and impact of Tolstoy's thinking on education are translated into applicable theory for today's education students Jean-Jacques Rousseau Jurgen Oelkers, 2014-10-23 Jean Jacques Rousseau enlightenment philosopher and founder of natural education is one of the most influential philosophers of education in the western world In order to fully understand Rousseau's impact as a true educational thinker Jurgen Oelkers argues that we must take into account his paradoxical style unique intellectual biography and his turbulent and unconventional way of life Combining historical analysis and contemporary ethical theory this text serves as both an introduction to Rousseau's theories of education and a critique of his views and shows how Rousseau was a pioneer in exploring educational issues within the context of his own philosophical problems in order to present innovative solutions St Augustine Ryan N. S. Topping, 2014-10-23 After setting Augustine's thought firmly within the context of his life and times Ryan Topping examines in turn the causes of education the purposes pedagogy curriculum and limits of learning as Augustine understood them Augustine s towering influence over Medieval and Renaissance theorists from Hugh of St Victor to Aquinas to Erasmus is traced The book concludes by drawing Augustine into dialogue with contemporary philosophers exploring the influence of his meditations on higher education and suggesting how his ideas can reinvigorate for our generation the project of liberal learning
