Alienation and Alterity Paul Cooke, Helen Vassallo, 2009 Discussions of French identity have frequently emphasised the importance of a highly centralised Republican model inherited from the Revolution In reality however France also has a rich heritage of diversity that has often found expression in contingent sub cultures marked by marginalisation and otherness whether social religious gendered sexual linguistic or ethnic This range of sub cultures and variety of ways of thinking the other underlines the fact that norms can only exist by the concomitant existence of difference s The essays in this collection which derive from the conference Alienation and Alterity Otherness in Modern and Contemporary Francophone Contexts held at the University of Exeter in September 2007 explore various aspects of this diversity in French and Francophone literature culture and cinema from the nineteenth to the twenty first century The contributions demonstrate that while alienation from a cultural norm and also from oneself can certainly be painful and problematic it is also a privileged position which allows the tranger to consider the world and his her relationship to it in an other way
