Mafia Massacre Death Mercenary Book 11:

Journalism's Martyrs Andrew Weeks, 2022-05-04 Journalists have often put themselves in danger to convey crucial information to the public. Many journalists have even died doing their jobs investigating crimes or traveling to battle zones and sometimes documenting events in their own communities. Recently, reporters have been assaulted, mocked, and silenced; their reports dubbed fake news, and they are enemies of the people. A free press is one of the country's most reliable foundations for ensuring a democracy for current and future generations. With a focus on American journalism, this book tackles issues affecting today's news through profiling journalists killed on the job, whether from violent conspiracy terrorism or mass shootings.

Organized Crime Howard Abadinsky, 2007 Abadinsky provides a detailed comprehensive analysis of the origins, history, theoretical explanations, and structure of domestic and international organized crime, including drug trafficking, gambling, and loan sharking. The author also explains the methods employed by law enforcement agencies to combat organized crime and the policy decisions reached by various investigating committees and commissions, including the President's Commission on Organized Crime.

Swedish Marxist Noir Per Hellgren, 2018-12-28 Marxist theories have had a profound influence on crime fiction, beginning with the works of the American writers of the 1930s. This study explores the development of a Swedish Marxist noir subgenre after the 1990s through a Marxist reading of central works from the Marlowe novels of Raymond Chandler to the 1960s social crime fiction of Sjöwall and Wahloo to modern bestselling authors such as Henning Mankell, Stieg Larsson, Roslund and Hellström, Jens Lapidus, Arne Dahl, and others. The works of these writers show a common thread of Marxist worldview in their portrayal of a modern world gone wrong.

The New Phase of Global Terrorism Binneh S. Minteh, James Bacigalupo, Kevin Borgeson, Robin Maria Valeri, 2025-05-30 The New Phase of Global Terrorism explores the nuances of the shift in the organization, strategy, and operation of terrorist groups into smaller and more robust terror groups, in both the United States and international levels. To develop efficient counterterrorism measures, both domestically and globally, an understanding of the changing nature of terrorist group structure and strategy is essential. In this edited collection, authoritative scholars use relevant theories of sociology and psychology, as well as evidence from leading counterterrorism agencies such as the FBI, to support analysis, examples, and explanations of the landscape of terrorism around the world. Part I discusses the evolution, theories, and psychology of terrorism. In this part, the authors outline the rationale of the book, capturing how terrorism has changed over the years. In Part II, the book explores the new phase of domestic terrorism, drawing on left-wing extremism, right-wing extremism, and jihadist attackers in the United States, with a focus on their use of lone actor attacks and decentralized networks. Part III focuses on the new phase of international terrorism and discusses operational organization and strategies of international terror groups and their capabilities in the form of combat operations and small group operatives in Sub Saharan Africa the Middle East and South East Asia Part IV covers terrorists use of technology for propaganda recruitment training and operations with examples from the use of technology in recruiting and training by Al Qaeda and Islamic State in Iraq and Syria ISIS Part V brings this information together and analyzes the criminal justice response including building partnerships with counterterrorism agencies intelligence sharing and the use of courts to bring terrorist actors to justice Ideal as a text in terrorism counterterrorism and homeland security courses this book is highly readable for criminal justice psychology and sociology students and professors as well as policymakers and practitioners concerned with countering terrorism at home and abroad
