Engaging the Everyday John M. Meyer, 2015-03-13 Meyer pioneers a uniquely political approach to environmental social criticism that follows from a startling central proposition that it is not outright oppression and denialism that are the most significant impediments but what he aptly terms the resonance dilemma This is the failure of climate and environmental challenges however important we may grant that they are to strike us as integral everyday concerns This lively eloquent accessible volume models the very style of social criticism that it calls for in response to this dilemma a resonant environmental criticism that works on rather than against everyday practices Lisa Disch Department of Political Science University of Michigan Ann Arbor author of Hannah Arendt and the Limits of Philosophy

Objects and Materials Penny Harvey, Eleanor Conlin Casella, Gillian Evans, Hannah Knox, Christine McLean, Elizabeth B. Silva, Nicholas Thoburn, Kath Woodward, 2014-07-16 There is broad acceptance across the Humanities and Social Sciences that our deliberations on the social need to take place through attention to practice to object mediated relations to non human agency and to the affective dimensions of human sociality This Companion focuses on the objects and materials found at centre stage and asks what matters about objects Objects and Materials explores the field providing succinct summary accounts of contemporary scholarship along with a wealth of new research investigating the capacity of objects to shape unsettle and exceed expectations Original chapters from over forty international interdisciplinary contributors address an array of objects and materials to ask what the terms of collaborations with objects and materials are and to consider how these collaborations become integral to our understandings of the complex relational dynamics that fashion social worlds Objects and Materials will be of interest to students and scholars across the social sciences and humanities including in sociology social theory science and technology studies history anthropology archaeology gender studies women s studies geography cultural studies politics and international relations and philosophy Energy Democracy: A Research Agenda Andrea M.
