Mutare Gen Hospital Nursing School:

African nurses and everyday work in twentieth-century Zimbabwe Clement Masakure, 2020-12-15 Informed by the memories of African nurses this book highlights the experiences of men and women who provided nursing services in Zimbabwe's hospitals in the twentieth century. It argues that in their subordinate positions and within their various capacities nursing assistants, nursing orderlies, medics, and qualified nurses, African women and men played a pivotal role in the provision of healthcare services to their fellow Africans. They transformed hospital spaces into their own, reshaped and reformulated indigenous as well as western nursing and biomedical practices. Through their work, African nurses contributed to the development of the nation by being at the bedside, healing the sick and nursing the infirm. Ministry of Health and Child Welfare Training Programmes, Institutions and Addresses, 1994 The Catholic Directory of Southern Africa, 1988 Nomination of James W. The interviews in this book were done after independence in 1983. The book is divided into three sections. In the first section, eight women tell their stories. In the second section, women talk about their experiences in different areas of work. The third section is about women in one of the most important areas of decision making: women councillors. Finally, there is a postscript about women in Zimbabwe seven years after independence. Commercial Directory, 2006 Hospital and Health Services Review, 1983 Official Telephone Directory, 2006 Central African Journal of Medicine, 1986 BoldAds Yellow Pages, 1989 Lactation Management Curriculum Gail Woodward-Lopez, A.
