Mutare General Hospital:

One day this will all be over Ross Parsons,2012-05-13 Ross Parsons has been working with HIV positive children in Mutare since 2005 As a child psychotherapist he was interested in exploring how a therapeutic group meeting regularly might offer a way of elaborating and meeting their needs His account of these experiences is presented as a rare blend of anthropological and psychotherapeutic approaches to the study of children and he is candid about the close even intimate relationships that resulted I have crossed the classical ethnographic and psychoanalytic boundary of the cool observer The therapist while still awkwardly present has also become an advocate in pursuit of the ethnographic The period of his research coincided with one of deep crisis in Zimbabwe's economy employment opportunities were few public health and education services were in decay and the prospects were grim for those on the margins of society In the course of my fieldwork I have attended too many funerals In the absence of state support the poor look variously to international NGOs and to the church Parsons offers telling insights into the crossroads of donated pharmaceuticals and Christian faith and is constantly alert to the place of traditional spirituality and ties of kinship Dare to Love Completely Janine Roberts,2009-07 Follow a young woman off the plane down winding dusty paths and through the doors of an orphanage where children are waiting to teach you the most important lessons in life Travel past the orphanage to the surrounding villages and stoop inside darkened huts to greet men women and children whose stories of amazing faith give you strength and courage to go forth and fight the everyday battles See the AIDS epidemic spread from household to household yet watch as each one rises from the ashes and keeps going Return in the evening to the quiet cement house enveloped in darkness the only light a small glow from your candle Look around the room at your new friends a people willing to trust God and find joy in the midst of these devastating circumstances You will come to realize that no matter what a person faces the pain of grief and hardship is greatly diminished in the presence of lavish love Come experience true love Janine Roberts grew up in Vienna West Virginia She graduated from West Virginia Wesleyan College in 1999 and Asbury Theological Seminary in 2004 Janine traveled to Zimbabwe in 1998 and 2002 before moving to Fairfield Children's Homes from 2004 to 2007 During her time there she worked with Zimbabwean volunteers to expand a program called HOPE This program provides nutrition education and medical support to orphans so that they can continue living with relatives in their communities She plans to return to live in Zimbabwe in 2009 For her current updates from Zimbabwe please visit www.hopeofzim.blogspot.com Challenged Lovers Fadzai Zimunya,2013-11-21 This is a book about the power of love over all else Both Danai and Fadzai are first born children and expectations were understandably very high The central message here is that parents need to impart all they believe their offspring need to get and this needs to be during the formative years Young adults are subjected to societal influences that may not be in line with what the parents have in mind Life lessons must be given but respect of the young mind is critical to maintain balance Most parents find that they are busy with the day to day life demands to the extent that their offspring are left to find their ways Outside influences end up shaping the young minds In this true story the challenge came when the two young adults fell in love and decided to marry Their love was stronger than all efforts to separate them

Diamonds in the Rough Human Rights Watch (Organization),2009 This 62 page report documents how following the discovery of diamonds in Marange in June 2006 the police and army have used brutal force to control access to the diamond fields and to take over unlicensed diamond mining and trading Some income from the fields has been funneled to high level party members of ZANU PF which is now part of a power sharing government that urgently needs revenue as the country faces a dire economic crisis In February 2009 Human Rights Watch researchers conducted more than 100 one on one interviews with witnesses local miners police officers soldiers local community leaders victims and relatives medical staff human rights lawyers and activists in Harare Mutare and Marange district in eastern Zimbabwe Publisher description By the Grace of God BISHOP EBEN KANUKAYI NHIWATIWA,2024-03-21 An African bishop shares his story and ministry Born in the small Zimbabwean village of Gandanzara Bishop Eben Kanukayi Nhiwatiwa became an inspired and accomplished leader in the church and larger society Elected as a bishop in The United Methodist Church in 2004 he has guided ministries in Zimbabwe and across Africa and beyond through periods of immense and rapid change In his book By the Grace of God the bishop takes the reader through his educational odyssey winding through Zimbabwe and the United States He narrates with humor his introduction to the US and its unfamiliar customs He inspires readers with the story of the remarkable series of events that shaped him as a Christian and bishop The book provides a succinct master class on the art and science of leadership Drawing inspiration and insights from an array of literature and astute observation Nhiwatiwa synthesizes what have been his most important gleanings about factors that contribute to visionary and effective leadership Nhiwatiwa became known as the Chabadza Bishop advocating for vibrant mutual partnerships with churches and annual conferences in other parts of the world Chabadza is a Shona word meaning to give a helping hand to someone who is already working He urges people asking for help to be active workers in the project themselves He has diligently advanced ideas for collaboration that eliminate approaches rooted in maintaining dependency Nhiwatiwa writes Life changing events in my life took place not because of my sustained goal to pursue a certain objective but that by the grace of God His witness and leadership have helped transform The United Methodist Church for ministry in the twenty first century Growing Up with HIV in Zimbabwe Ross Parsons,2012 Zimbabwe stands at the epicentre of the global HIV epidemic Families are severely depleted by death and migration HIV infection is often lived in secrecy despite obvious physical manifestations This study seeks to describe the specificity of the Zimbabwean context as it affects the lives of HIV positive children in the eastern town of Mutare at a time of severe crisis in the state marked by impoverishment organised violence and mass death Book jacket African nurses and everyday work in twentieth-century Zimbabwe Clement Masakure,2020-12-15 Informed by the memories of African nurses this book highlights the experiences of men and women who provided nursing services in Zimbabwe's hospitals in the twentieth century. It argues that in their subordinate positions and within their various capacities nursing assistants, nursing orderlies, medics and qualified nurses, African women and men played a pivotal role in the provision of healthcare services to their fellow Africans. They transformed hospital spaces into their own, reshaped and reformulated indigenous as well as western nursing and biomedical practices. Through their work, African nurses contributed to the development of the nation by being at the bedside, healing the sick and nursing the infirm. Zimbabwe Health for All Action Plan, 1988. The Zimbabwe Directory, 1983. Should I Forgive? Nyasha 'Many Faces' Gapa, 2013-02-14. The courageous few Zimbabweans who dared to stand up to President Robert Mugabe and his Zanu PF party in the election campaigns of 2008 were persecuted, assaulted and in many cases brutally murdered. Should I Forgive is based on the experiences of a young wife and mother, Nyasha Gapa, who was raped and beaten for daring to campaign for Morgan Tsvangirai's opposition party, MDC Movement for Democratic Change. While many of the details of the story have been changed to protect Nyasha's family and friends from further violence, all the events related in this tragic story, from the sadistic beating of Nyasha's husband to their flight to South Africa, their exploitation by a white farmer, the racist persecution the refugees experienced there and the catastrophic fire that actually happened, Should I Forgive is a heartbreaking story of staggering courage, endurance and love. A History of the Birmingham General Hospital and the Musical Festivals John Thackray Bunce, 1873. Official Telephone Directory, 1995. The Hospital and Health Services Review, 1984. Parade, 2001.
