Patrick LOISEAU

Le Lieu Hante:

History's Place Seth Graebner, 2007-01-01 History's Place explores nostalgia as one of the defining aspects of the relationship between France and North Africa. Dr. Seth Graebner argues that France's most important colony developed a historical consciousness through literature and that post-colonial writers revised it while retaining its dominant effect.

Enacting Past and Present Michaela M. Grobbel, 2009-01-28 Through a discussion of Walter Benjamin, Sigmund Freud, Mieke Bal, and others, author Michaela Grobbel focuses on the work of three women authors as types of performance which lead to re-presentations of memory. These women writers foreground the present but also critically demonstrate the complex relationship of the present to the past. Grobbel's work is a critical addition to any discussion of feminism, memory, and literary modernism.

Sources and Analogues of "The Flower and the Leaf" George Linnaeus Marsh, 1906 Modern Philology, 1907 Vols 30-54 include 1932-56 of Victorian bibliography prepared by a committee of the Victorian Literature Group of the Modern Language Association of America.

The Estory of William Longsword Patrick LOISEAU, 2024-09-06 This book is the result of a master's thesis in Modern Literature classics option written at the University of Rennes 2 defended in 2012. While it can borrow from history through a certain number of historical archives, this research work borrows more from legend and literary sources that made it possible to free the second Duke of Normandy, a Viking and son of the Viking Rollo, founder of Normandy in 911, from anonymity. Indeed, this academic work is the first to deal with a character that is not sufficiently known, sometimes confused with a homonym but of fundamental importance. The choice of the title The Estory of William Longsword can be explained by the following considerations: it is a question of history but signifying by this choice that it will be a question of entering into this history of preserving as much as possible its medieval character, its medieval meaning, and therefore not only of being the modern observer of a timeless sequence. It will not be history but a story that is told. In 7 chapters, all the dimensions inherent to such publications will be revealed, including the sources, the gaps between the story and the texts, the legendary dimension of the character, his human dimension, the mysteries to be discovered.

Epitomes of Evil Hannele Klemettilä, 2006 Hangmen were familiar characters from urban reality to people living in France and the Burgundian Netherlands in the late Middle Ages. These officers played an essential role in the new penal system. However, general attitudes towards public executioners were highly ambiguous, often hostile and disparaging. In past imagery, various hangman figures, real or fictitious, were closely linked to ideas of otherness, cruelty, sin, and evil. They were identified with criminals, marginal people, and demons. In the period of the late Middle Ages, the hangman's representations were actively exploited, shaped, and modified for various reasons by different social and cultural groups in different products of culture, religious as well as secular. This study casts light on ways of perceiving the executioner in French and Burgundian culture and society from the fourteenth to the early sixteenth century. The primary sources used in this work consist of wide and varied printed and non-printed textual materials such as chronicles, writings by legal experts and theologians, drama, and poetry Significant role is also given to the testimony offered by pictorial art both sacred and profane especially miniatures and panel paintings
